Contents

List of associate authors vii

Foreword by David Downes viii

Preface x

Acknowledgements xv

PART 1 – ABOUT COMPARATIVE PENOLOGY 1

1 Introducing comparative penology 3

PART 2 – PENAL SYSTEMS IN CRISIS? 41

2 Globalized penal crisis? 43

3 The United States of America: law and order ideology, hyperincarceration and looming crisis 50

4 England and Wales: stop-go and the upwards zig-zag 62

5 Australia and New Zealand: neo-liberal punitiveness down under 77

6 South Africa: the transition from apartheid 92

7 Germany: archetypal corporatism 101

8 The Netherlands: a beacon of tolerance dimmed 113

9 France and Italy: corporatism and Catholicism 129

10 Sweden and Finland: nordic social democracy 149

11 Japan: iron fist in a velvet penal glove 171
PART 3 – PATTERNS OF PENALTY?

12 Comparative youth justice 199
13 Neo-liberal youth justice systems 215
14 Youth justice systems: corporatist variants 252
15 General patterns in youth justice? 296
16 Prison privatization 304

PART 4 – IN CONCLUSION 335

17 ‘A boot stamping upon a human face forever’? 337

References 344
Index 371