The MEANING and NATURE of PUNISHMENT

David Shichor
Professor Emeritus
California State University, San Bernardino

WAVELAND PRESS, INC.
Long Grove, Illinois
Contents

Preface vii

Introduction 1

PART I
The “Why” of Punishment 3

1 Social Control 5
   - Formal and Informal Controls 5
   - Civil and Criminal Law 8
   - Punishment 9

2 Cultural, Social, and Symbolic Aspects of Law and Punishment 13
   - Social Organization and Social Control 14
   - Formal Rationality 16
   - Models of Law 17
   - Symbolic Functions of Law 21
     - Boundary Maintenance 22
     - Expressive Function 22

3 Theories and Justifications of Punishment 25
   - Retribution 26
   - Deterrence 30
   - Incapacitation 37
Rehabilitation 39
Reintegration 51
Sustaining the Morale of the Conformists 54

4 Recent Trends in Penal Policies and Practices 57
Neo-Retributionist Orientation 59
Neo-Utilitarian Orientation 63
Contemporary Debates 65
Selective Incapacitation 68
Restorative Justice 71
The New Penology 77

PART II
The “How” of Punishment 83

5 Evolution of Incarceration 87
Galleys and Workhouses 89
Banishment and Transportation 91

6 The Emergence of Penitentiaries and Prisons 93
Enlightenment Influences 93
Quakers and the Pennsylvania System 95
The Auburn System 98
Prison Expansion 102
  The Decline of Prison Labor 103
  Role of the Courts 104
Total Institutions 107
Inmate Subcultures 109
Incarceration as Policy 113

7 Emerging Issues: Private Prisons and Women’s Prisons 115
Private Prisons 115
Women’s Prisons 121

8 Parole 125
Alexander Maconochie 125
Conditional Release 127
Political Functions 128
Public Disfavor 131
9 Probation and Intermediate Sanctions 133
   Probation 133
      John Augustus and Probation 135
      Conditional Reprieve 135
      Presentence Reports 136
   Intermediate Sanctions 137
      Electronic Monitoring 138
      Shock Probation and Boot Camps 139
      Intensive Supervision in Probation (ISP) 140
   House Arrest 141
   Fines 141
   Community Service Orders 144

10 Capital Punishment 147
   Historical Roots 147
   Constitutionality 149
      Furman v. Georgia 149
      McCleskey v. Kemp 151
   Rationales and Concerns 152
      Deterrence 152
      Gap between Death Sentence and Execution 155
      Wrongful Convictions 156
      The Death Penalty for Juveniles and the Mentally Ill 159
   Public Opinion and International Perspective 161

11 Special Issues in Punishment 165
   Mandatory Sentences and Three-Strikes Laws 166
   Sentencing Commissions and Alternative Courts 172
   The Enduring Effects of Punishment 176
   Punishment of White-Collar and Corporate Crime 178
   Conclusion 186

References 189
Index 209