

Humane Prisons

Edited by

David Jones

Foreword by

Craig Haney

RADCLIFFE PUBLISHING

OXFORD • SEATTLE

Contents

Foreword	vii
About the editor	xi
About the contributors	xii
Acknowledgements	xvii
Introduction
David Jones	xviii
1 Is there a future for humane imprisonment? Hans Toch	1
2 First impressions Kathy Page	11
3 Life inside Erwin James	19
4 Psychopathological considerations of prison systems David Jones	29
5 How to create madness in prison Terry A Kupers	47
6 Resolving prisoner conflicts before they escalate into violence Kimmitt Edgar	59
7 Can there be 'best practices' in supermax? Lorna A Rhodes	73
8 The UK Prison Service Close Supervision Centres Mark Morris	87
9 Creating the elements of a humane prison system Ernest L Cowles	101
10 Women's imprisonment: how getting better is getting worse Sunny Marriner and Dawn Moore	115
11 Governing a humane prison Peter Bennett	129
12 Clinical supervision for staff in a Therapeutic Community prison Liz McLure	141
13 Psychotherapy in prisons: a supervisor's view Tilman Kluttig	151

14	Peer-review and accreditation Sarah Tucker and Adrian Worrall	159
15	Independent inspection of prisons Anne Owers	177
16	Humane prisons: are they worth it? Fiona Warren	191
	Index	205