Customary Law in the Modern World
The Crossfire of Sudan’s War of Identities

Francis M. Deng
Contents

Part One: Customary Law In Context

1. Introduction to Part One 3

2. Historical Background: Law, War And Identity 5
   2.1 Pre-independence: formation of state and legal system 5
   2.2 Post-independence: instability, Islamization and civil war 6
   2.3 Impact on the legal system—formal and customary 8
   2.4 The comprehensive peace agreement and implications for the legal system 11

3. Customary Law in its Cultural Context 14
   3.1 Procreational immortality—women, children, and clan identity 15
   3.2 Unity and harmony—the concept of cieng 16
   3.3 Individual and collective dignity—the concept of dheeng 17
   3.4 The moral attributes of leadership 17
   3.5 Implications of the value-system for customary law 18
   3.6 The process of selecting decision-makers 21
   3.7 The process of dispute resolution 23

4. Customary Law and Legal Pluralism 27
   4.1 Three systems of justice: Islamic, customary, and civil 27

5. Customary Law, War, and Social Transformation 33
   5.1 Overview of social change 33
   5.2 Customary law and traditional authority in the new order 35

6. The Challenges of Reform 39
   6.1 Challenges of integrating the formal and informal justice systems 40
   6.2 Areas of needed reform of customary law 42
   6.3 The process of reform: bridging the gap between enthusiasm and knowledge 45
Contents

6.4 The role of international partnership 47
6.5 Program of action 48

Part Two: Substantive Examples of Customary Law 53

1. Introduction to Part Two 55

2. Family Law 58
   2.1 Marriage 58
      2.1.1 Forms of marriage 58
      2.1.2 Capacity to marry 61
      2.1.3 Consent in marriage 62
      2.1.4 Bars to marriage 66
      2.1.5 Formalities of marriage 71
      2.1.6 Validity of marriage 79
   2.2 Dissolution of marriage 80
      2.2.1 Consequences of a spouse’s death 80
      2.2.2 Grounds for a husband’s claim for divorce 82
      2.2.3 Grounds for the wife’s claim for divorce 85
   2.3 Legitimacy of children 88
   2.4 Sexual offences 91
      2.4.1 Adultery 91
      2.4.2 Seduction 96
      2.4.3 Abduction 97
      2.4.4 Parties entitled to sue 98
      2.4.5 Vicarious liability 100
      2.4.6 Intrafamily liability 101

3. Law of Defamation 103
   3.1 Modes of defamation 104
      3.1.1 Direct imputations 104
      3.1.2 Defamation by gossip 104
      3.1.3 Defamation through song 105
   3.2 Objects of defamation 105
   3.3 Publication to a third party 107
   3.4 The defense of justification 108
   3.5 The defense of privilege 108
   3.6 Redress against defamation 109

4. Law of Property 112
   4.1 Acquisition and rights of ownership 112
      4.1.1 Land 113
      4.1.2 Livestock 115
      4.1.3 Other personal property 116
4.2. Bride wealth  116
   4.2.1 The nature of bride wealth  117
   4.2.2 Participation in bride wealth collection  118
   4.2.3 Value of bride wealth  118
   4.2.4 Distribution of bride wealth  119
   4.2.5 Enforcement of bride wealth  120
   4.2.6 Reverse payments  121

4.3 Inheritance  122

4.4 Barter and sale  123

4.5 Custody of livestock  124

4.6 Gifts  125

4.7 Theft  126

4.8 Labor and produce  127
   4.8.1 Land use and cultivation  127
   4.8.2 Animal husbandry  129
   4.8.3 Hunting and fishing  129
   4.8.4 Collection of wild fruits and honey  129

5. Homicide and Bodily Injuries  130
   5.1 Homicide  130
      5.1.1 Forms of homicide  132
      5.1.2 Settlement of blood feuds  135
   5.2 Bodily injuries  138
   5.3 Liability for animals  138
   5.4 Employment of curers  139
   5.5 Social health insurance  141

Part Three: Voices for Customary Law  143

1. Introduction to Part Three  145

2. Dr. Peter Nyot Kok  149

3. Paul Mayom Akec and John Luk  169

4. Attorney General, Michael Makuei  205

5. Deputy Chief Justice, Bullen Pancial Awal  217

6. Tilar Deng  223

7. A Group Of Southern Sudanese Judges and Lawyers  231

8. Ambrose Riiny Thiik and Chan Reec Madut  261
Contents

9. Ali Osman Yassin 279

10. Dr. Amin Mekki Medani and Omar El Farouk Shoumena 292

Notes 300
References 313
Index 314