Proceedings of the 100th Annual Meeting

March 29–April 1, 2006
Washington, DC
CONTENTS

Foreword .................................................................x
Introduction ........................................................................xiii

A Conversation with Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice ......................... 1

Eighth Annual Grotius Lecture
A Just World Under Law: A View From the South
B. S. Chimni ................................................................. 17

Trade, Investment, and the Environment: Closed Boxes?
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Edith Brown Weiss .......................................................... 25

The Mutual Supportiveness of Trade and Environment
Franz Xaver Perrez .......................................................... 26

The WTO is NOT a Closed Box
Gabrielle Marceau ............................................................ 29

The Challenge of Treaty Structure: The Case of NAFTA and the Environment
Tseming Yang ................................................................. 32

SUMMARY OF REMARKS BY:
Donald McRae ................................................................. 34

The Laws of Force and the Turn to Evidence
Questions of Fact and Evidence and the Laws of Force
Dino Kritsiotis ................................................................. 39

Evidence as an Issue in International Legal Practice
Marie Jacobsson ............................................................... 40

Rules of Evidence for the Use of Force in International Law’s New Era
Mary Ellen O’Connell ......................................................... 44

Security Council
Thérèse O’Donnell ............................................................. 47

Reflections on Force and Evidence
Thomas M. Franck .......................................................... 51

The American Society of International Law and the Rise of International Courts and Tribunals: An Eventful Century
Framing Political Theory of International Courts and Tribunals: Reflections
at the Centennial
David D. Caron ............................................................... 55

Brief Observations
Thomas Buergenthal .......................................................... 62
International Criminal Courts as Fact (and Truth) Finders in Post-Conflict Societies: Can Disparities with Ordinary International Courts Be Avoided?
Christine Van den Wyngaert ............................................. 63

Fair and Equitable Treatment in International Law

REMARKS BY:
Rudolf Dolzer .......................................................... 69

REMARKS BY:
Vaughan Lowe .......................................................... 73

Is Fair and Equitable Fair, Equitable, Just, or Under Law?
Howard Mann ............................................................. 74

Restoring the Rule of Law: Lessons From Iraq

The Iraqi High Tribunal and Rule of Law: Challenges
Mark A. Drumbl ......................................................... 79

The Extraterritorial Application of Human Rights

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Anthea Roberts ........................................................... 85

Application of Human Rights Treaties Extraterritorially During Times of Armed Conflict and Military Occupation
Michael Dennis .......................................................... 86

The Extraterritorial Application of Human Rights to Occupied Territories
Orna Ben-Naftali ......................................................... 90

Spreading Weeds Beyond Their Garden: Extraterritorial Responsibility of States for Violations of Human Rights by Corporate Nationals
Robert McCorquodale .................................................. 95

The Geological Strata of International Law

Response to Professor Weiler’s “Geology of International Law”
Liliana Obregon .......................................................... 103

The Relationship Between Jus ad Bellum and Jus in Bello: Past, Present, Future

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Jenny Martinez ............................................................ 109

Assessing the Relationship Between Jus in Bello and Jus ad Bellum: An “Orthodox” View
Antoine Bouvier .......................................................... 109

Morality, Law, and the Relation Between Jus ad Bellum and Jus in Bello
Jeff McMahan ............................................................ 112

The Danger of Conflating Jus ad Bellum and Jus in Bello
Julie Mertus ............................................................... 114

Considering Some Consequences of “Calling in the Troops”
Karen Engle .............................................................. 118

Jus in Bello and Jus ad Bellum
Frédéric Mégret .......................................................... 121

Book Discussion: The Dark Sides of Virtue ............................................. 125

Business and Humanitarian and Human Rights Obligations

REMARKS BY:
Andrew Clapham ........................................................ 129
Table of Contents

The Position with Regard to International Humanitarian Law
Emanuela-Chiara Gillard ................................................................. 130

UN Perspectives on “Business and Humanitarian and Human Rights Obligations”
David Weissbrodt ........................................................................... 135

New Voices: Perspectives on Transitional Justice, Postconflict Societies and Human Rights

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Lucy Reed ......................................................................................... 141

“Open for Business”: International Financial Institutions, Postconflict Economic Reform, and Rule of Law

Kristen Boon ...................................................................................... 142

Assumptions of Legitimacy and the Foundations of International Territorial Administration

Hollin K. Dickerson ................................................................. 144

What’s So Special About Transitional Justice? Prolegomenon for an Excuse-Centered Approach to Transitional Justice

David C. Gray ..................................................................................... 147

The New American Encounter with International Human Rights Norms:

The Road After Abu Ghraib

Shadi Mokhtari .................................................................................. 151

New Voices: International Law and War

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Allison Marston Danner ............................................................ 155

When Two Visions of a Just World Clash: International Humanitarian Law and Islamic Humanitarian Law

Anicée Van Engeland ................................................................. 155

Feminist Reflections on the Use of Force

Gina Heathcote ................................................................................. 157

“Jus Ad Bellum,” “Jus in Bello,” “Jus Post Bellum?” Rethinking the Conception of the Law of Armed Force

Carsten Stahn ...................................................................................... 158

Genocide From Multiple Perspectives: Same Law, Different Meanings

Philippa Webb .................................................................................. 160

International Judicial Lawmaking: The Yugoslav Tribunal and the Laws of War

Allison Marston Danner ............................................................ 162

U.S. International Law Theory: Possibilities and Problems

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS .......................................................... 165

Jurisphilia/Jurisphobia: U.S. Approaches to International Law Theory

Iain Scobie ....................................................................................... 166

Power, Democracy, and Participation: The Gender-Neutral Notion of Trade and the Exclusion of Women from the Table

Berta Esperanza Hernández-Truyol .............................................. 170

REMARKS BY:
Adrien Wing ....................................................................................... 173

Robert Williams .................................................................................. 174

Benedict Kingsbury ............................................................................... 175
ASIL Proceedings, 2006

CONCLUDING REMARKS

Michael Reisman .......................................................... 177

Debate: Adjudicating Operation Iraqi Freedom

Rereading Root

Anne-Marie Slaughter .................................................. 203

Commentary by:

Anthony Carty .............................................................. 210

Jonathan Zasloff .......................................................... 213

The Legacy of Elihu Root

Introductory Remarks by:

Charles N. Brower ........................................................ 203

Rereading Root

Anne-Marie Slaughter .................................................. 203

Commentary by:

Anthony Carty .............................................................. 210

Jonathan Zasloff .......................................................... 213

How to Make the Doha Round a Genuine “Development” Round

Trade and Development(s): Many Concepts, Different Approaches

Welber Barral ............................................................... 217

The WTO and Developing Countries

Gary N. Horlick ............................................................. 220

Development: Its Place, Treatment, and Meaning at the WTO

Seema Sapra ................................................................. 223

The WTO and Law and Development: The Domestic Connection

Kevin E. Davis ............................................................... 226

Trade, Development, and the Legal Practitioner

Teresa Genta-Fons ......................................................... 229

Domestic Enforcement of International Decisions

Introductory Remarks by:

Catherine Amirfar ........................................................ 233

Remarks by:

Lori F. Damrosch .......................................................... 234

U.S. Judges and International Courts

Paul B. Stephan ............................................................ 238

Sex, Gender, and International Law

Remarks by:

Fareda Banda ............................................................... 243

Catharine A. MacKinnon .................................................. 246

The Status of the Individual in International Law

Remarks by:

Dinah Shelton ............................................................... 249

A Just World Under Law: An African Perspective on the Status of the Individual in International Law

Vincent O. Nmehielle ..................................................... 252

The Status of the Individual: A Critical Appraisal

John Cerone ................................................................. 257

Roundtable—War, Force, and Revolution

Anatomy of an International Criminal Tribunal

Hudson Lecture by Theodor Meron ..................................... 279
Table of Contents

The Move from Institutions?
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
José Alvarez ................................................................. 287
Substituting International Law
Eyal Benvenisti ............................................................... 289
The Move from Institutions? Examining the Phenomenon in Africa
Tiyanjana Maluwa ......................................................... 294
The Move from Institutions: The Case of the World Trade Organization
Dan Sarooshi .............................................................. 298

International Environmental Law at the Beginning of the 21st Century
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Laurence Boisson de Chazournes ........................................ 303
Does One Need to Be an International Lawyer to Be an International Environmental Lawyer?
Daniel Bodansky ........................................................... 303
International Environmental Law: Rising to the Challenge of Common Concern?
Jutta Brunnée ............................................................... 307
International Institutions and Global Environmental Governance
Ellen Hey ................................................................. 310
Beyond “Globalization”: A Call for the Reinvention of International Environmental Law in the 21st Century
Ileana Porras ............................................................... 312
Distinguishing From or Integrating Into—What Is the Relationship Between International Environmental Law and Public International Law?
Kevin R. Gray .............................................................. 314

International Cultural Law: Looking Back and Looking Ahead
The Development of International Cultural Law
James A. R. Nafziger ....................................................... 317
REMARKS BY:
Mark W. Janis ............................................................. 322
Reflections on the Theory and Practice of Cultural Rights
Alison Dundes Renteln ..................................................... 324
New Principles for Cooperation in the Mutual Protection and Transfer of Cultural Material
Robert K. Paterson ........................................................ 327

The Powers of the Commander in Chief in the Struggle Against Terrorism
Parsing the Commander in Chief Power: Three Distinctions
Curtis A. Bradley .......................................................... 331
Understanding Current Assertions of Executive Power
Deborah Pearlstein ........................................................ 333
Scope of Presidential Power: Military Commissions—America’s Domestic War Crimes Court
Thomas Hemingway ....................................................... 337
REMARKS BY:
David Golove ............................................................. 340

The HIV/AIDS Pandemic and the Role of International Law
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Ellen M. Walker ........................................................... 345
The HIV/AIDS Pandemic and Human Security
Noah Benjamin Novogrodsky .......................................................... 345
International Law, HIV/AIDS, and Human Rights in Africa: A Post-Colonial Discourse
Obijiofor Aginam ............................................................................ 350
Killing Her Softly . . .” HIV/AIDS and the Right to Health Care for Women in Sub-Saharan Africa
Nikki Naylor .................................................................................. 354

Peace v. Justice: Contradictory or Complementary
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Mahnoush H. Arsanjani .................................................................. 361
REMARKS BY:
H.R.H. Prince Zeid Ra’ad Zeid Al Hussein .................................... 362
REMARKS BY:
Marieke Wierda ........................................................................... 368

Just Trade Under Law: Do We Need a Theory of Justice for International Trade Relations?
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Joost Pauwelyn ............................................................................. 375
Why Trade Law Needs a Theory of Justice
Frank J. Garcia ............................................................................. 376
REMARKS BY:
Christian Barry ........................................................................... 380
Susan Esserman ........................................................................... 384

Plenary Address by Rosalyn Higgins
INTRODUCTION BY:
Thomas Buergenthal .................................................................. 387
KEYNOTE ADDRESS
“A Just World Under Law”
Rosalyn Higgins ........................................................................ 388

The International Court of Justice at 60: Performance and Prospects
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Stephen Mathias ........................................................................... 397
REMARKS BY:
William Howard Taft IV .............................................................. 398
Vera Gowlland-Debbas ................................................................. 400
Daniel Bethlehem .......................................................................... 403
Bruno Simma ................................................................................ 404
Questions and Answers ................................................................. 405

Human Rights and Fundamentalisms
INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:
Karima Bennoune .......................................................................... 407
Empowering the Human in Human Rights Discourse
Seval Yildirim .............................................................................. 409
On Being Curious About Fundamentalisms and Human Rights
Doris Buss ...................................................................................... 411
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Between Rogues and Liberals: Towards Value Pluralism as a Theory of Freedom of Religion in International Law</td>
<td>414</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peter Danchin</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Purity or Danger? Human Rights and Their Engagement with Fundamentalisms</td>
<td>416</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gita Sahgal</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Law and Development: Problems, Perspectives, and Prospects</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>John Ohnesorge</td>
<td>423</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Institutions, International Legal Norms, and the Millenium Development Goals</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Matjaz Nahtigal</td>
<td>425</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The State of Law and Development: Challenges After the Second Generation Reforms</td>
<td>427</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kerry Rittich</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Law-Dependent Public Goods: A Proposed Strategic Framework for a Results-Based Approach to Legal and Judicial Reform</td>
<td>430</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mohan Gopalan Gopal</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Comparative Dimensions of Law and Development</td>
<td>434</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>By Hiram E. Chodosh</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Judicial Enforcement of Treaties: Self-Execution and Related Doctrines</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Carlos M. Vázquez</td>
<td>439</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>REMARKS BY:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Robert Dalton</td>
<td>441</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ann Woolhandler</td>
<td>445</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disciplining the Discipline: Roles and Responsibilities of International Lawyers</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>REMARKS BY:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elizabeth Wilmshurst</td>
<td>449</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nicholas Michel</td>
<td>450</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Elisa Massimo</td>
<td>450</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Naz Modirzadeh</td>
<td>451</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Discussion</td>
<td>453</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Centennial Toasts to the Society</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TOAST BY:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anne-Marie Slaughter</td>
<td>457</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Toast to the American Society of International Law on the Occasion of its 200th Anniversary</td>
<td>458</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thomas M. Franck</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>100th Annual Meeting Theme Statement and Program</td>
<td>461</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Forty-seventh Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition</td>
<td>480</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Appendices</td>
<td>484</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Minutes of the ASIL Annual General Meeting</td>
<td>484</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ASIL Officers and Executive Council</td>
<td>488</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>American Journal of International Law</td>
<td>489</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>International Legal Materials</td>
<td>490</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proceedings of the Annual Meeting</td>
<td>490</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
<td>491</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>