Trafficking in humans: Social, cultural and political dimensions

Edited by Sally Cameron and Edward Newman

United Nations University Press
Contents

Figures and tables ............................................................... vii
Contributors ................................................................. viii
Acknowledgements ......................................................... ix
Acronyms ................................................................. x

1 Introduction: Understanding human trafficking ..................... 1
  Edward Newman and Sally Cameron

Part I: Themes ............................................................... 19

2 Trafficking in humans: Structural factors ............................... 21
  Sally Cameron and Edward Newman

3 Globalization and national sovereignty: From migration to trafficking ........................................... 58
  Kinsey Alden Dinan

4 Trafficking of women for prostitution ................................. 80
  Sally Cameron
5 Migrant women and the legal politics of anti-trafficking interventions ........................................ 111
   Ratna Kapur

6 Trafficking in women: The role of transnational organized crime .............................................. 126
   Phil Williams

Part II: Regional experiences ................................................. 159

7 The fight against trafficking in human beings from the European perspective ............................... 161
   Helga Konrad

8 Human trafficking in East and South-East Asia: Searching for structural factors ............................ 181
   Maruja M. B. Asis

9 Human trafficking in Latin America in the context of international migration ................................. 206
   Gabriela Rodríguez Pizarro

10 Human trafficking in South Asia: A focus on Nepal ................................................................. 224
    Renu Rajbhandari

11 Trafficking in persons in the South Caucasus – Armenia, Azerbaijan and Georgia: New challenges for transitional democracies ................................................. 252
    Gulnara Shahinian

Index .............................................................................. 274