Contents

List of Contributors vii
Foreword by The Hon Justice Michael Kirby AC CMG ix
Preface by Barbara Ann Hocking and Joseph Henry Vogel xv
Acknowledgments xxix

1 The Perils of Terminology and the 'Saviour Sibling' Dilemma 1
   Barbara Ann Hocking and Eva Ryrstedt

2 I Sing of Arms and the Doctor: What Role for Law When Biology is Called to War? 23
   Piero P. Giorgi, Scott Guy and Barbara Ann Hocking

3 Indigenous Peoples and Genetic Population Research: Reflections on a Culturally Appropriate Model of Indigenous Participant Consent 45
   Helena Kajlich

4 The SARS Epidemic in Hong Kong 2003: Interplay of Law, Medicine and Ethics 57
   Edwin Hui

5 A Proposal Based on 'The Tragedy of the Commons': A Museum of Bioprospecting, Intellectual Property Rights and the Public Domain 75
   Joseph Henry Vogel

6 Law, Ethics and Wildlife Disease: An Australian Perspective 85
   Hamish McCallum
7 Environmental Risk, Environmental Liability and the Regulation of Biotechnology: Mediating Law and Biology? 95
  Christopher Rodgers

8 Legitimizing Regulatory Decision-Making about Genetically Modified Organisms under the Gene Technology Act 2000 (Cth) 115
  Charles Lawson and Richard Hindmarsh

9 The Universal Declaration on Bioethics and Human Rights: Bioethics, a Civilizing Utopia in the Age of Globalization? 175
  Christian Byk

10 Conclusion: Shuffling the Law and Biology iPod 191
  Barbara Ann Hocking and Joseph Henry Vogel

Index 197