Caroline Bolle

A comparative overview of the mandatory bid rule in Belgium, France, Germany and the United Kingdom

Nomos
Part II: Analysis of the mandatory bid rule

Chapter 1: Incurring the obligation to launch a mandatory bid
1. Control for the application of the mandatory bid rule
2. The attribution of voting rights for the assessment of control
3. The chain principle
4. Securities determining and transactions triggering the application of the mandatory bid rule

Chapter 2: Launching a mandatory bid
1. The launch of a mandatory bid
2. Timetable for launching a mandatory bid
3. Terms and conditions of a mandatory bid
4. Securities to be acquired under a mandatory bid
5. Restrictions on share dealings and the mandatory bid rule
6. Exemptions and dispensations from the obligation to launch a mandatory bid
7. Enforcement of the mandatory bid rule

Chapter 3: Price to be offered under a mandatory bid
1. The price to be offered as the key element in meeting the aim underlying the mandatory bid rule
2. The level of the price to be offered under a mandatory bid
3. Nature of the price to be offered under a mandatory bid
4. Financing a mandatory bid
Summary

I. Economic Analysis, Historical Overview and Introduction to the Mandatory Bid Rule

II. Analysis of the Mandatory Bid Rule
   1. Incurring the Obligation to Launch a Mandatory Bid
   2. Launching a Mandatory Bid
   3. Price to be Offered Under a Mandatory Bid

Appendix 1:
The impact of the concept of control under Belgian law on the application of the mandatory bid rule
   1. The concept of sole control under Belgian law
   2. The concept of joint control under Belgian law

Selected bibliography