Law and Agonistic Politics

Edited by
ANDREW SCHAAP
University of Exeter, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

List of Contributors vii
Preface xi

Introduction
Andrew Schaap 1

1 The Democratic Narcissus: The Agonism of the Ancients Compared to that of the (Post)Moderns
Andreas Kalyvas 15

2 Democratic Agon: Striving for Distinction or Struggle against Domination and Injustice?
Jean-Philippe Deranty and Emmanuel Renault 43

3 The Opening: Alegality and Political Agonism
Hans Lindahl 57

4 The Expressive Agon: On Political Agency in a Constitutional Democratic Polity
David Owen 71

5 Staging Dissensus: Frederick Douglass and ‘We, the People’
Jason Frank 87

6 Polemos and Agon
Alex Thomson 105

7 Questioning the Law? On Heteronomy in Public Autonomy
Bert van Roermund 119

8 Agonism, Antagonism and the Necessity of Care
Keith Breen 133

9 The Stranger in Synagonistic Politics
Nathalie Karagiannits and Peter Wagner 147
10 Passionate Subjectivity, Contestation and Acknowledgement: Rereading Austin and Cavell
   Aletta J. Norval

11 On the Rationality of Disagreement and Feeling: Brethren, Bombers and the Construction of the Common
   Fiona Jenkins

12 The Complex Agon
   Adrian Little

13 The Absurd Proposition of Aboriginal Sovereignty
   Andrew Schaap

Index