

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS
The Regulatory Framework

Christopher C. Nicholls

LexisNexis®

TABLE OF CONTENTS

About the Author	v
Preface	vii
CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION: FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND OUR FINANCIAL MARKETS	1
I. Our Familiar Institutions	1
II. Functional Perspective	3
III. Legal and Regulatory Infrastructure	7
IV. Reports on Canadian Financial Institutions	8
V. Conclusion	9
CHAPTER 2: OVERVIEW OF THE CANADIAN FINANCIAL SYSTEM ...	11
I. Introduction	11
II. In the Shadow of the “Four Pillars”	11
III. Canada’s Financial Institution Landscape	13
IV. Banks and the Business of Banking	13
A. Foreign Banks	14
B. The Footprint and “Footfall” of the Canadian Banking Sector	16
C. Constitution Act, 1867	17
D. “Business of Banking”	18
E. The Canadian and American Banking Sectors: A Brief Digression	19
V. Insurance	20
VI. Trust and Loan Companies and Other Deposit Taking Institutions	21
VII. Securities Dealers	21
VIII. The Basic Financial Regulatory Framework	22
IX. Consolidated Regulation and the Creation of OSFI	23
A. The Role of OSFI	25
B. Relationship Between OSFI and Provincial Regulators	28
X. The Bank of Canada	31
XI. The Financial Institutions Supervisory Committee	32
XII. The IMF Financial System Stability Assessment	32
XIII. Conclusion	34
CHAPTER 3: GOALS OF REGULATION	35
I. Introduction	35
II. The Case for Regulating Industry	35
III. In Case of Emergency, Enact New Laws	36
IV. The General Case for Economic Regulation	38
V. Is Financial Regulation “Normal”?	38

VI.	Public Interest vs. Private Interest Explanations for Regulation	40
A.	Public Interest Theories of Regulation	40
B.	Private Interest Theory of Regulation	43
VII.	Financial Regulation and Economic Performance	46
VIII.	Conclusion.....	47
CHAPTER 4: REGULATION OF BANKS: THE BUSINESS OF BANKING		49
I.	Introduction	49
II.	The Significance of Banks	49
III.	The Concept of Money.....	50
IV.	Monetary Policy and the Bank of Canada.....	52
V.	The LVTS and ACSS Systems.....	53
VI.	The “Target” for the Overnight Rate.....	54
VII.	The Role and Functions of Banks	56
VIII.	The Constitution Act and the Business of Banking.....	58
IX.	Summary	65
X.	Foreign Banks Carrying on a Banking Business in Canada.....	66
XI.	Conclusion.....	68
CHAPTER 5: REGULATION OF BANKS: OWNERSHIP AND BUSINESS RESTRICTIONS		69
I.	Introduction	69
II.	Ownership Restrictions	69
III.	Indirect Restrictions on Foreign Ownership.....	73
IV.	Bank Holding Companies	75
V.	Restrictions on Permissible Bank Activities and Investments.....	77
VI.	Automobile Leasing Restrictions	79
VII.	Insurance Restrictions	82
VIII.	Investment Restrictions	87
IX.	Conclusion.....	88
CHAPTER 6: REGULATION OF BANKS: CAPITAL ADEQUACY RULES		89
I.	Introduction	89
II.	Capital Adequacy	89
III.	The 1988 Basel Capital Accord.....	90
IV.	The Basel II Accord	93
A.	Evolution and General Framework of Basel II.....	93
B.	Minimum Capital Requirements	93
1.	The Minimum Capital Ratio	93
(a)	Tier 1 and Tier 2 Capital	93
(i)	Innovative Tier 1 Capital.....	95
2.	Risk-Weighted Assets: Three Types of Risk.....	96

3. Credit Risk in Basel II	96
4. Securitization	97
5. Market Risk	99
6. Operational Risk.....	100
C. Supervisory Review	100
D. Market Discipline (Through Enhanced Disclosure).....	101
V. Implementation of the Basel II Accord in Canada	101
VI. Response of the BIS in the Wake of Financial Market Turmoil	103
VII. Conclusion.....	104
CHAPTER 7: THE REGULATION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES	107
I. Introduction	107
II. Moral Hazard and Adverse Selection.....	107
III. Types of Canadian Insurance Firms	108
A. Life and Health Insurers.....	110
B. Property and Casualty Insurers	111
IV. Ownership Restrictions	111
V. Business and Investment Restrictions	112
VI. Prudential Regulation.....	114
A. Life Insurance Companies.....	115
B. Property and Casualty Insurance Companies	116
VII. Monoline Insurers	116
VIII. Foreign Insurers.....	118
IX. Conclusion.....	119
CHAPTER 8: THE SECURITIES INDUSTRY	121
I. Introduction	121
II. The Business of Securities Firms	121
III. The Regulation of Securities Firms.....	123
A. Provincial Securities Legislation.....	123
B. The Registration Requirement	124
C. Proposed National Instrument 31-103 and Proposed Revisions to Parts XI and XII of the Ontario Securities Act.....	126
D. Universal Registration.....	128
IV. Regulation of Securities Dealers and the Goals of Capital Market Regulation	128
A. Prudential Regulation.....	129
B. Regulation of Professional Standards.....	130
C. Market Conduct and Client Protection	131
V. Self-Regulatory Organizations	132
A. Overview	132
B. The Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada.....	132
VI. Conclusion.....	134

CHAPTER 9: OTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.....	135
I. Introduction.....	135
II. Trust Companies.....	135
III. Credit Unions and Caisses Populaires.....	138
IV. Co-Operative Principles.....	138
V. Credit Union Legislation.....	140
VI. The Credit Union Sector.....	141
VII. Recent Proposals for Reform of U.K. Credit Union Legislation.....	143
VIII. Conclusion.....	143
CHAPTER 10: DEPOSIT INSURANCE, OTHER FINANCIAL CONSUMER PROTECTION (“COMPENSATION”) PLANS AND THE FINANCIAL CONSUMER AGENCY OF CANADA.....	145
I. Introduction.....	145
II. Deposit Insurance.....	145
A. Justification for Deposit Insurance.....	147
B. Deposit Insurance as a Limit on Government Exposure.....	152
C. Private vs. Government Deposit Insurance.....	155
D. Mandatory vs. Optional Deposit Insurance.....	155
E. Deposit Insurance and Regulatory Supervision.....	156
F. Additional Problems with Deposit Insurance.....	156
III. Other “Compensation” Schemes.....	157
IV. Financial Consumer Agency of Canada.....	160
V. Conclusion.....	161
CHAPTER 11: FINANCIAL REGULATION AND ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENT VEHICLES: THE ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES OF HEDGE FUNDS, PRINCIPAL PROTECTED NOTES AND SOVEREIGN WEALTH FUNDS.....	163
I. Introduction.....	163
II. Expansion of Alternative Investment Vehicles: The Case of Hedge Funds.....	163
III. Regulatory Studies and Initiatives.....	167
A. Broad Definition of “Hedge Funds”.....	167
B. Canadian Initiatives.....	171
C. The Regulatory Challenge of Principal Protected Notes.....	172
IV. A Final Cautionary Note About Hedge Funds.....	180
V. Sovereign-Wealth Funds.....	181
VI. Conclusion.....	182
CHAPTER 12: FINANCIAL INNOVATION, FINANCIAL CRISES AND FINANCIAL REGULATION.....	183
I. Introduction.....	183

II.	The U.S. Subprime Mortgage Market	184
III.	Repercussions for Canadian Third Party Asset-Backed Commercial Paper	188
IV.	International Fallout From U.S. Subprime Mortgage Problems.....	203
	A. United States	203
	1. Structured Investment Vehicles.....	203
	2. Auction-Rate Securities	205
	3. Bear Stearns Demise	206
	4. Failure of IndyMac.....	209
	5. Government Sponsored Enterprises: Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac	210
	6. Signs of Continuing Softness in the U.S. Financial Sector	214
	B. Other International Financial Institution Failures	215
	1. Northern Rock plc	215
	2. Roskilde Bank (Denmark).....	217
V.	Lessons Learned.....	218
VI.	Conclusion.....	221
	CHAPTER 13: CONCLUSION.....	223
	Index	225