Taxation of Employment Income in International Tax Law

edited by
Daniela Hohenwarter
Vanessa Metzler
Contents

Series Editor’s Preface ............................................................................................................. 5
Editor’s Preface ....................................................................................................................... 7
List of Abbreviations .............................................................................................................. 11

I. Taxation of Employment Income under Double Taxation Conventions

Gabriela Hrachovinova
Historical aspects of the taxation of employment Income .................................................. 17

Gianluca Pezzato
The meaning of the term “employment” under article 15 of the OECD Model Convention ....................................................... 49

Daniel Dinkgraeve
Taxation of income from stand-by fees and the omission of activities under Article 15 OECD MC .............................................................................. 67

Mike Degrandi

Elke Aumayr
The 183-days rule in the OECD Model Convention .............................................................. 109

Ákos Burján
International Hiring-out of Labor under Article 15 Paragraph 2 OECD MC ..................... 125

Saskia Wouterson
Income from employment exercised aboard a ship or aircraft under Article 15(3) OECD MC ................................................................................................. 147

Thomas Harder
Taxation of employment income under Article 15 OECD MC in triangular cases ................. 175

Barbara Lenger
Subject-to-tax provisions and the taxation of employment income in DTC law .................. 205

Anna Bergmann
Directors’ Fees And Remuneration of Top-level Managerial Officials Under Article 16 UN Model Convention ................................................................. 229

Markus Buchsteiner
Employment income of Artistes and Sportsmen under Article 17 paragraph 1 OECD Model Tax Convention ................................................................. 249

Anna Brugnoli
Employment Income under Art. 17(2) OECD MC .................................................................. 275
Contents

Martin Svalbach
The State-of-the-Fund Principle .......................................................... 293

Katharina Semrau-Deutsch
The business-activity clause in Art. 19 para. 3 OECD MC .......................... 317

Katarína Mačejovská
Students under Article 20 of the OECD Model Convention ........................ 343

Thomas Linse
Pensions under Article 18 OECD MC .................................................. 367

Alessandro Borsetto
Article 28 OECD Model Convention: ‘Members of Diplomatic Missions and Consular Posts’ ................................................................. 393

Martin Vock
Alternatives to the Taxation of Pension under Art. 18 ................................. 433

Eszter Grocottné Timár
Pensions under Article 19 Paragraph 2 OECD MC .................................. 463

Tomáš Urbášek
Severance payments and golden handshakes under DTC law ....................... 485

Matthias Erik Vock
Employee Stock Options under DTC law ............................................. 513

Jan Soška
The Application of article 24 OECD MC to the taxation of employment income ........................................................................ 537

II. Taxation of Employment Income under EC Law

Philipp Cede
The impact of Article 39 EC on the taxation of employment income under DTC law ................................................................. 565

Petr Šebesta
The impact of the Schumacker doctrine on taxation of the employment income of virtual residents ..................................................... 595

Eugen Oehm
The impact of Article 39 EC Treaty on the taxation of pensions ...................... 619

Judit Jancsa-Pék
The impact of Art. 39 EC on exit taxation concerning deferred remunerations ............................................................................. 639

Monika Croatto
The impact of Art. 39 EC on gross taxation of employment income of non-residents ............................................................................. 657

List of Authors .................................................................................. 683