Contents

Preface vii
List of Abbreviations xix

Introduction 1

1 Key Aspects of Set-off 7
   I Definition 7
   II Significance and Functions of Set-off 9
      A Set-off as a Means of Economic Efficiency 9
      B Set-off as an Equitable Instrument 10
      C Set-off Providing Security 11
   III Significance of Set-off in Modern Business Life 12
      A Set-off Agreements in Banking Law 12
      B Importance of Unilateral Set-off 13
   IV Modern Problems with Set-off 14
      A Jurisdictional Questions 14
      B Choice-of-law Questions 18
   V Terminology 19
      A 'Set-off' Versus 'Compensatio' 19
      B 'Set-off' Versus 'Counterclaim' 20
      C 'Cross-claim', 'Cross-demand', and 'Counter-demand' 22

2 Set-off in a Comparative Survey 23
   I Incipiencies: Roman Law 23
      A Introduction 23
      B Development 24
      C Operation of Set-off in Roman Law—The Various Stages 26
         i Judicia Bonae Fidei 26
         ii Judicia Stricti Iuris 28
         iii Special Cases 29
         iv Set-off Under Justinian 30 a Development of the Roman Post-classical Judicial System 30
b  Ex officio Compensatio?
   The Dispute over 'Ipso iure Compensatur'
   The Significance of the Ipso iure-Dispute in the 21st Century c  Allegation of Fact or Submission of Claim?
   d  The Requirement of Ascertained Claims ('Liquidity') as a Tool of Discretion e  Connectivity and Similarity of Claim and Cross-claim?

D  Observations and Comments i  Set-off as a Procedural Mechanism in (Pre-)Classic Roman Law ii Set-off Asserted in Court: Assertion of a Countervailing Right or Assertion of a Fact?
   iii Judicial Discretion
   iv  Summary and Outlook

II  Set-off in the Romanic Legal Systems
A  Historical Development
   i  Introduction
   ii  Customary Law
   iii Canon Law
   iv  Written Law
   v  Summary

B  Set-off Under the Code Civil (Compensation Légale)
   i  Operation Ipso iure?
   ii Requirements
      a  Ascertainment of Claims (Liquidity) Uncertainties Regarding the Degree of Ascertainment Uncertainties Regarding the Relevant Point in Time b  Reciprocity
      c  Similarity of Obligations
      d  Enforceability of Primary Claim and Cross-claim e  Set-off Must Not Be Excluded by Law or by Agreement f  The Role of Connectivity of Primary Claim and Cross-claim iii Effect of Legal Set-off
   iv  Summary

C  Set-off by Agreement (Compensation Conventionelle)
D Judicial Set-off (Compensation Judiciaire) = Counterclaim 56

E Set-off in the Avant-Projet Catala 58

F Set-off in Other Romanic Legal Systems 59 i Overview 59
   ii Automatic Extinction of Concurring Debts 59
   iii Ascertainment of Claims 61

G Summary 61

III Set-off in the Germanic Legal Systems 62

A Historical Development 63

B Set-off in the German Codification 65 i Operation by Extra-judicial Declaration 66
      a Principal Rule 66
      b Set-off Declaration in Court (Prozessaufrechnung) 66
         Set-off Brought in Court as an Allegation of Fact 66 Set-off Brought in Court as an Assertion of a Right 67 ii Requirements of Set-off 69
      a Reciprocity 69
      b Similarity of Obligations 70
      c Validity, Maturity, and Enforceability of Cross-claim 72
         The Principle 72
         Statute of Limitations 72 Enforceability of Cross-claim Only 73
      d Obstacles to Set-off 74
      e Ascertainment of the Cross-claim? 75 f Connectivity of Primary Claim and Cross-claim? 76 g Interplay of Ascertainment and Connectivity of Claims 77 iii Retroactive Effect of Set-off 78

C Set-off in Switzerland 79
   i Historical Development 79
   ii Operation by Extra-judicial Declaration 81
      a Principal Rule 81
      b Set-off Declaration in Judicial Proceedings (Prozessaufrechung) 81
   iii Requirements 82
      a Reciprocity 82
         Principal Rule 82
         Exceptions 83
b Similarity of Obligations
   Money Debts 84
   Other Obligations 85

c Validity, Maturity, and Enforceability of Cross-claim 85
d Obstacles to Set-off 87
e Not Required: Ascertainment and Connectivity of Claims 87

iv Retroactive Effect of Set-off 89

D Summary of German and Swiss Law of Set-off 89

E Set-off in Austria 90
   i Introduction 90
   ii Set-off ipso iure? 91
   iii Requirements 92
      a General Overview 92
      b In Particular: Ascertainment of Cross-claim Required? 94

iv Effect of Set-off 95
v Summary 95

F Jurisdictions with Similar Set-off Concepts 97

G Set-off by Agreement 97

H Counterclaim 98

I Summary 99

IV Set-off in England and English-based Jurisdictions 100

A Statutory Set-off 101
   i History 101
   ii Operation 102
   iii Requirements 103
      a Mutuality 103
      b Money Debts 104
      c Ascertainment of Claims 105
      d Maturity and Limitation 106
      e Obstacles to Set-off 106
      f Not Required: Connectivity 107

iv Effect of Statutory Set-off 108
v Summary 108

B Abatement 109
   i Historical Development 109
   ii Scope of Application 110
   iii Connectivity 110
   iv Ascertainment of Claims 111 v Operation 111
   vi Summary and Practical Significance 111
C Equitable Set-off
i Introduction 112
ii Operation 113
iii Requirements 114
   a General Prerequisites; 'Arising Out of the Same Transaction' 114
   b The 'Equity' Element 115
c Ascertainment of Claims 116
   d The 'Equity Element' and Liquidity as Discretionary Instruments 116 iv Effect 117
D Relevance of Court Rules 117
i Mere Regulation of Practice and Procedure 117 ii Misunderstandings in Case Law 118
E Contractual Set-off 120
F Counterclaim 121
G Summary 121
V Comparative Analysis 123
A Set-off as a Mainly Substantive Instrument 123
B Broad Spectrum of Complex Rules 124
i Different Operation Mechanisms 124 a The ipso iure Operation 125
   b The Self-help or Declaration Mechanism 125
c The Judicial Mechanism 126 ii Requirements of Set-off in Comparison 126 iii Possible Effects of Set-off 127
C Conclusions 127

3 Set-off in the Conflict of Laws 129
I. Determination of the Applicable Law in International Arbitration 129
A Development and Current Theories 129
   i Application of the Lex Loci Arbitri 129 ii Application of the Conflict of Laws Rules Which the Tribunal Considers Appropriate 131 a Development 131
      b Application of the Choice-of-law Rules at the Seat of Arbitration 132 c Cumulative Application of All Conflicts Rules Involved in the Dispute 133 d Application of 'General Principles of Private International Law' 133 iii Application of the (Substantive) Law Which the Tribunal Considers Appropriate 134
Contents

a The Principle 134
b Application of a Specific National Law 135 c Application of More Than One National Law (tronc commun) 135 d Application of A-National Rules of Law 135

B Comparison of Law-determination Methods in Arbitration and State Court Proceedings 136

II Law-determination for Set-off in Classic Conflict of Laws 138
A Application of the Lex Fori 139
i England 140
ii United States 141
B Application of the Law of the Primary Claim 142
i Switzerland 142
a Principal Rule 142
b Primary Claim Arising Out of a Contract 143
c Primary Claim Not Arising Out of a Contract 143 ii EC-Regulation on the Law Applicable to Contracts (Rome I) 144
C Cumulative Approach 146
i Introduction 146
ii The Original Concept and Its Variations 148 D Other Models 150
i Application of the Law of the Claim Which Existed First 150 ii Application of the Law of the Claim Which Arose Second 150 iii Application of the Lex Loci Solutionis 151 iv Application of the More Set-off Friendly Law 151

III Criteria for a Suitable Rule to Determine the Law Applicable to a Set-off in International Arbitration 152
A Respecting Party Autonomy 153
B Ensuring Predictability 153
C Eliminating the Possibility of Manipulative Tactics 153
D Enhancing Practicability 154
E Providing Comprehensiveness 154
F Avouching Appropriateness 154
i 'Appropriateness' in Classic International Contract Law—European Traditionalism and American Theories 154 ii 'Appropriateness' of Choice-of-Law Rules in International Arbitration 157
Contents

iii 'Appropriateness' with Regard to Choice-of-Law Rules for Set-off in International Arbitration 158 a Choice-of-law Fairness Considerations in the Traditional Conflicts Rules 158
   b Possible Fairness Considerations When Determining the Law in International Arbitration 158
      Introduction 158
      Functions of Set-off 158
      Implications 159

IV Discussion of Classic Choice-of-Law Rules With Regard to Set-off 160
   A The Lex Fori/Lex Loci Arbitri Approach Under Scrutiny 161
      i Practicability 161
         a In State Court Proceedings 161
         b In International Arbitration 162 ii Predictability 163
      iii Avoidance of Using Tactics 163
      iv Appropriateness? 164
      v Summary 166
   B The Primary Claim Approach Under Scrutiny 167
      i Predictability and Practicability? 167 a Depending on Contingencies 167
         b Appropriate for Other Set-off Concepts? 168 Ipso iure Set-off 169
      c Aspects Governed by the Primary Claim's Law 170
         d Foreign Law of Set-off Partially Settled in Substantive and Partially in Procedural Law 171 ii Elimination of Manipulation? 172 iii Appropriateness 172
      iv Summary 173
   C The Cumulative Approach Under Scrutiny 174
      i Introduction 174
      ii Practicability 175
      iii Predictability and Elimination of Manipulative Tactics 175
      iv Appropriateness 176
   D The Theory of Applying the Law of the Claim Which Existed First Under Scrutiny 177
E The Doctrine of Applying the Law of the Claim Which Arose Second Under Scrutiny 177
F The Application of the Lex Loci Solutionis Under Scrutiny 178
G The Proposal to Apply the More Set-off Friendly Law Under Scrutiny 178
H Conclusions 179

V Other Choice-of-Law Solutions in International Arbitration 180
A The Cumulative Application of Conflicts Rules 180
B The Tronc Commun Approach 182
C Application of A-National Law 183
  i Introduction 183
  ii The ICC Case No 3540 of 1980 184
D Discussion of the Tronc Commun Approach and the Application of A-National Law 185
  i Appropriateness 185
    a Undisguised Consideration of Substantive Appropriateness Criteria 185 b Avoidance of ‘Nationalisation’ of the Dispute 186 ii Practicability, Predictability and Avoidance of Manipulation Tactics 188 a ‘Ad Hoc Distillation’ of Similarities Versus One Unvarying General Principle of Set-off as the Basic Question 188 b Advantages of Ad Hoc Distillation 188
    c Disadvantages of Ad Hoc Distillation 188 ICC Case No 5971: an Illustrative Example 188
      Temptation to Oversimplify 189 Temptation to Misinterpret 189
    d Progressive Summary 191
    e Advantages of Advanced Voie Directe 191 f Disadvantages of Advanced Voie Directe 192
    g Summary 194
E Fleshing Out a Uniform Set-off Concept 194
  i The ‘Creeping’ Codification of General Principles 194 ii Overview of Laws and Sets of Rules Based on Comparative Analysis 198 a UNIDROIT Principles (PICC), Principles of European Contract Law (PECL), and Draft Common Frame of Reference (DCFR) 198
   Introduction 198
   Operation of Set-off 200
   Requirements 201
   Similarity 201
   Reciprocity 201
   Performability of the Primary Claim, Maturity of the Cross-claim 202 Exclusion and Waiver of the Right of Set-off 203
   Liquidity and Connectivity 203 Effect 204
b The Principles of the Gandolfi Group 204
c The Netherlands NBW 205

iii Comparative Analysis 206 a Operation of Set-off 206
   b Similarity, Reciprocity, Enforceability of the Claims 206 c Exclusion of Set-off 208
   d Liquidity and Connectivity 209 e Effects of Set-off 211
   f Results 213

VI Summary 214

4 Conclusions 216

5 Final Summary 219

Bibliography 229
Index 249