Contents

List of contributors ix
Preface xii

Opening speech 1
Victor Nabhan

PART I THE STATUTE OF ANNE AND ITS ROLE IN THE WORLD OF COPYRIGHT

1 Introduction to Part I: the history of copyright 7
   Lionel Bently
2 The Statute of Anne 1709–10: its historical setting 14
   William Cornish
3 What’s new about the Statute of Anne? or Six observations in search of an act 26
   Ronan Deazley
4 To what degree did the Statute of Anne (8 Anne, c.19, [1709]) affect commercial practices of the book trade in eighteenth-century England? Some provisional answers about copyright, chiefly from bibliography and book history 54
   Michael F. Suarez, S.J.
5 The Statute of Anne and authors’ rights: Pope v. Curll (1741) 70
   Mark Rose

Transition from guild regulation to modern copyright law

6 Transition from guild regulation to modern copyright law – a view from the Low Countries 79
   Willem Grosheide
7 Transition from guild regulation to modern copyright law (Sweden) 103
   Gunnar Petri
8 From privilege to modern copyright law 116
   Martin Vogel
Influence, past and present, of the Statute of Anne on civil and common law countries

9 The influence (past and present) of the Statute of Anne in France
   Christophe Geiger

10 The influence of the Statute of Anne on Belgian copyright law
   Joris Deene

11 Colonial copyright redux: 1709 v. 1832
   Pierre-Emmanuel Moyse

PART II DIGITAL LIBRARIES AND ONLINE LICENSING

12 Introduction to Part II
   Uma Suthersanen

13 Phoenixes in the internet era – the changing role of libraries
   Dame Lynne J. Brindley

Digital libraries in the current legal and educational environment

14 The development of digital libraries in the United States
   June M. Besek

15 Digital libraries in the current legal and educational environment: a European perspective
   Marco Ricolfi

16 Digital libraries in the current legal and educational environment: towards a remunerated compulsory license or limitation?
   Raquel Xalabarder

Collective administration for online libraries: a rightsholders’ dream or an outdated illusion?

17 Digital libraries: collective administration for online libraries – a rightsholders’ dream or an outdated illusion?
   Tarja Koskinen-Olsson

18 Towards a contextual copyright?
   Ysolde Gendreau
Online digitisation and licensing

19 Google Book Search
   Harjinder Obhi 275

20 Problem or solution? Mass digitisation of library stocks and the Google Book Settlement
   Christian Sprang 285

21 Online exploitation and licensing: General Reporter’s
   summary and proposals for discussion
   J.A.L. Sterling 291

PART III THE BORDERLESS ERA: INTERNATIONAL
EXHAUSTION, GLOBAL ADMINISTRATION
AND FORMALITIES

22 Introduction to Part III
   Paul Torremans 299

International exhaustion

23 International exhaustion
   André Lucas 304

24 The economic perspective: exhaustion in the digital age
   Andreas Wiebe 321

Exhaustion in digital products: the impact on economic rights

25 The legal perspective on exhaustion in the borderless era:
   consideration of a digital first sale doctrine for online
   transmissions of digital works in the United States
   Marybeth Peters 329

26 Exhaustion in digital products and the ‘accidental’ impact on the balance of interests in copyright law
   Tomasz Targosz 337

27 Exhaustion – a casualty of the borderless digital era
   Trevor Cook 354

Formalities

28 Historical appearances and disappearances of formalities:
   from Berne to national laws
   Delia Lipszyc 367
Global copyright

29 Formalities in the digital era: an obstacle or opportunity? 395
   Stef van Gompel

30 The US experience with formalities: a love/hate relationship 425
   Jane C. Ginsburg

31 The scope of formalities in international copyright law in a digital context 460
   Takeshi Hishinuma

Global administration

32 The graduated response and the role of intermediaries:
   avoiding the Apocalypse or a return to the sources? 478
   Pierre Sirinelli

Closing speech 492
   Victor Nabhan

Closing dinner speech at Lincoln’s Inn, 17 June 2009 495
   Lord Hoffmann

APPENDICES

Appendix 1 The Statute of Anne 1709–1710 501
Appendix 2 Further reading 507

Index 509