Contents—Summary

List of Contributors .......................... xv
Table of Cases ................................. xix
Note from the Bench .......................... xxxv
  Patricia Wald

Introduction .................................. 1
  Shane Darcy and Joseph Powderly

I. SOURCES OF LAW AND JUDICIAL INTERPRETATION

1. Judicial Interpretation at the Ad Hoc Tribunals: Method from Chaos?
   Joseph Powderly ............................. 17

2. General Principles of Law, Judicial Creativity, and the Development of International Criminal Law
   Fabián O Raimondo ........................... 45

II. DEFINITION OF CRIMES

3. Judicial Activism and the Crime of Genocide
   William A Schabas ........................... 63

4. Using Custom to Reconceptualize Crimes Against Humanity
   Larissa van den Herik ....................... 80

5. The Reinvention of War Crimes by the International Criminal Tribunals
   Shane Darcy .................................. 106

6. Creating a Definition of Rape in International Law: the Contribution of the International Criminal Tribunals
   Niamh Hayes .................................. 129

III. FORMS OF CRIMINAL LIABILITY

   Robert Cryer .................................. 159

8. Judicial Creativity and Joint Criminal Enterprise
   Mohamed Shahabuddeen ....................... 184
Contents — Summary

9. Omission Liability at the International Criminal Tribunals—
   A Case for Reform
   Gideon Boas
   204

IV. DEFENCES AND FAIR TRIAL RIGHTS

10. Judicial Development of the Law of Defences by the
    International Criminal Tribunals
    Caroline Fournet
    229

11. The Development of the Right to Self-Representation before the
    International Criminal Tribunals
    Gillian Higgins
    252

12. The Right to be Informed of the Nature and Cause of the Charges:
    A Potentially Formidable Jurisprudential Legacy
    Wayne Jordash and John Coughlan
    286

V. PROCEDURE

13. Procedural Lawmaking at the International Criminal Tribunals
    Göran Sluiter
    315

14. Trying Cases at the International Criminal Tribunals in the Absence of the Accused?
    Håkan Friman
    332

15. The Judicial Role in the Definition and Implementation of the Completion Strategies of the International Criminal Tribunals
    Fidelma Donlon
    353

Index

385