Feminist Perspectives on Contemporary International Law

Between Resistance and Compliance?

Edited by
Sari Kouvo
and
Zoe Pearson

Oñati International Series in Law and Society

A SERIES PUBLISHED FOR THE OÑATI INSTITUTE FOR THE SOCIOLOGY OF LAW

OXFORD AND PORTLAND, OREGON
2011
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... v
Notes on Contributors ...................................................................................................... ix

1. Introduction ................................................................................................................... 1
   Sari Kouvo and Zoe Pearson

PART ONE: FEMINIST THEORY AND METHOD IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Navigating Feminisms: At the Margins, in the Mainstreams or Elsewhere? Reflections on Charlesworth, Otomo and Pearson ................................................................. 13
   Vanessa Munro

2. Talking to Ourselves? Feminist Scholarship in International Law ............................... 17
   Hilary Charlesworth

3. Searching for Virtue in International Law ...................................................................... 33
   Yoriko Otomo

4. Feminist Project(s): The Spaces of International Law ................................................. 47
   Zoe Pearson

PART TWO: FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES ON NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

Three Feminist Critiques of Varying Feminist Capitulations to Crisis-Hegemony, Reflections on Otto, Mertus and Grahn-Farley ................................................................. 71
   Anna Grear

5. Remapping Crisis through a Feminist Lens .................................................................. 75
   Dianne Otto

6. Road Blocks, Blind Spots, Speed Bumps: A Feminist Look at the Post-9/11 Landscape for NGOs ................................................................. 97
   Julie Mertus

7. The Politics of Inevitability: An Examination of Janet Halley's Critique of the Criminalisation of Rape as Torture ................................................. 109
   Maria Grahn-Farley
PART THREE: FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES ON GLOBAL AND LOCAL JUSTICE

From the Margins to the Mainstream and Back Again: Problems and Paradoxes of Feminist Engagement in Global and Local Justice. Reflections on Nesiah, Kouvo, Andersson, and Thomas................................................. 133
Alice Edwards

8. Missionary Zeal for a Secular Mission: Bringing Gender to Transitional Justice and Redemption to Feminism .............. 137
Vasuki Nesiah

Sari Kouvo

10. Trafficking in Human Beings: Vulnerability, Criminal Law and Human Rights .................................................. 177
Ulrika Andersson

Dania Thomas

12. Concluding (or Beginning?) Thoughts: Postcards to the Future ................................................................. 213
Sari Kouvo and Zoe Pearson

Index .................................................................................................................................................. 221