EU External Relations Law and the European Neighbourhood Policy
A paradigm for coherence

Bart Van Vooren
Contents

List of tables and figures ix
Table of cases xi
Table of EU Instruments xv
Acknowledgements xxvii

Introduction 1

1 A legal history of fragmentation and coherence in EU external action 11
  1.1 Introduction 11
  1.2 The development of EPC 'in the shadow' of the EEC 12
  1.3 The Maastricht Treaty: a watershed for 'EU' external relations? 30
  1.4 From Amsterdam to Lisbon: the CFSP's claim to legal independence 44
  1.5 The Lisbon Treaty and coherence in EU external relations 49
  1.6 Conclusion: the integration-law-policy dynamic in EU external relations 54

2 A theoretical framework for coherence in EU external relations law and policy 57
  2.1 Introduction 57
  2.2 Coherence: a constitutional principle of EU external relations law 59
  2.3 Coherence: a constitutional principle with three levels – Art 21.3 TEU 67
  2.4 Conclusion 72
Contents

3 Coherence of EU and Member State external action: duty of loyalty

3.1 Introduction: exclusion, cooperation and coherence 73
3.2 The common foundation of pre-emption and cooperation: Art 4.3 TEU 76
3.3 Coherence through pre-emption tested in EU readmission policy 77
3.4 Coherence through the duty of cooperation tested in EU aviation policy 99
3.5 Jurisprudence on the duty of cooperation: towards de facto pre-emption? 116
3.6 Conclusion: the loyalty obligation and EU–Member State coherence 125

4 Coherence across divided Union competences in the TEU and TFEU

4.1 Introduction: the principles of conferral and coherence 129
4.2 Delimiting Union powers 131
4.3 Delimiting the CFSP within the Union 146
4.4 Conclusion 175

5 Coherence and soft law in EU external relations: ENP as a paradigm

5.1 Introduction 177
5.2 Soft law in EU external relations: a functional framework of study 179
5.3 The hybrid legal nature of the European Neighbourhood Policy 182
5.4 Soft instruments during the ENP’s ‘conceptualization phase’ (2002–2003) 185
5.5 Soft instruments during the ENP’s ‘execution phase’ (2003–2005) 192
5.6 The ENP’s ‘mature phase’: towards an equilibrium between soft and hard law? (2005–…) 201
5.7 Legitimacy of soft law in EU external relations: the equilibrium between legality and utility 211
5.8 Conclusion 222
6 Coherence as policy synergy in the ENP

6.1 Introduction 225
6.2 The ENP as a coherent human security policy 226
6.3 Research design 232
6.4 Coherence in external projection of fundamental values 239
6.5 Coherence in joint ownership 255
6.6 Coherence between macro and meso-policies: energy in the ENP 265
6.7 Conclusion 285

7 Conclusion: the ENP, a paradigm for coherence?

7.1 Introduction 289
7.2 Coherence in EU external relations law and policy 289
7.3 Policy recommendations: coherent and effective EU
    external relations 302

Annex I: Research design Chapter 6 307
Annex II: Correlation matrix of ENP Action Plans' policy sections 313
Bibliography 327
Index 347