Europe’s Constitutional Challenges in the Light of the Recent Case Law of National Constitutional Courts

Lisbon and Beyond

Bearbeitung: Lars S. Otto, Luise Schöne, Osvaldo Saldías und Carmen Román Vaca

Nomos
Contents

Introduction: Achievements and Challenges – The European Union, its Constitutional Courts and the Perspectives after Lisbon
Ingolf Pernice

SESSION 1:
THE TREATY OF LISBON IN THE LIGHT OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS’ CASE LAW

Part I:
Three Courts, Four Judgments: the Judicial Approach towards Lisbon in France, Germany and the Czech Republic

French Conseil constitutionnel: Recent Developments
Jacqueline Dutheil de la Rochère

From Ultra-Vires-Control to Constitutional-Identity-Review: The Lisbon Judgment of the German Constitutional Court
Daniel Thym

The Two Lisbon Judgments of the Czech Constitutional Court
Jiří Zemánek

Lisbon before the Courts: Comparative Perspectives
Mattias Wendel

Part II:
The Treaty of Lisbon in a Broader Judicial Perspective

Toward a (Real) Cooperative Constitutionalism? New Perspectives on the Italian Constitutional Court
Roberto Miccù

Evolutive Attitude of the Bulgarian Constitutional Court in the EU Law Space
Emilia Drumeva
Contents

The Spanish Constitutional Court, the European Law and the Constitutional Traditions Common to the Member States (art. 6.3 TEU). Lisbon and Beyond. 137
Antonio López-Pina

Cosi è (se vi pare)? Germany, Italy, and European Integration after the Treaty of Lisbon 167
Giacinto della Cananea

Courts, People, Citizens. Understanding EU's Constitutional Democracy with the Help of the Lisbon Treaty and the Lissabon-Urteil 189
Tom Eijsbouts

SESSION 2:
MAKING LISBON WORK

Part I:
Institutions and Democracy

The President of the European Council 207
Paul Craig

The Citizens' Initiative – a Source of Additional Legitimacy for the European Union? 229
Roland Bieber

European Parliament and National Parliaments 241
Miroslaw Wyrzykowski

Linking Multiple Demoi. Inter-parliamentary Relations in the EU 267
Arthur Benz

Part II:
Primacy Issues and Individual Rights

The Status of the Principle of Primacy in the Lisbon Treaty Architecture 281
Stanisław Biernat
Contents

Back to the Square One – the Past, the Present and the Future of the Simmenthal Mandate
Siniša Rodin

Does the Treaty of Lisbon Really Implement Equal and Non-discriminatory Treatment of Third-Country Nationals (TCN)? The Case of Legally Resident TCN within a Member State of the Union
Ana Maria Guerra Martins

SESSION 3:
FUTURE CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENTS

Motor or Brake for European Policies? Germany’s New Role in the EU after the Lisbon-Judgment of Its Federal Constitutional Court
Ingolf Pernice

Perspectives on Constitutionalization of EU Law: The Issue of Emerging Hierarchies in the Context of Constitutional Pluralism
Evgeni Tanchev

Annex: Conference Programme