CONTENTS

Introduction ................................................................. 1
    Olga Tellegen-Couperus

PART I
LAW AND RELIGION AS MEANS TO CONTROL THE FUTURE

Divine Law and the Penalty of Sacer Esto in Early Rome ............ 11
    Leon ter Beek

Law and Divination in the Late Roman Republic .................... 31
    Federico Santangelo

PART II
PRIESTS, MAGISTRATES, AND THE STATE

The Curiate Law and the Religious Nature of the Power of Roman Magistrates .................................................. 57
    Michel Humm

Rationalizing Religious Practices: The Pontifical Calendar and the Law ......................................................... 85
    Jörg Rüpke

The Jurisdiction of the Pontiffs at the End of the Fourth Century BC 107
    Jan Hendrik Valgaeren

The Longevity of the Fetial College .................................... 119
    Linda Zollschan

PART III
SACRED LAW, CIVIL LAW, AND THE CITIZEN

Sacred Law and Civil Law ................................................ 147
    Olga Tellegen-Couperus
Control of the Sacred in Roman Law ................................. 165
   James Rives

The Immortality of the Soul and Roman Law ........................... 181
   Jan Willem Tellegen

Bibliography ........................................................................ 203
Index of Sources .................................................................... 223