Contents

Introduction 5

Part 1  Foundational Issues 15
Health and Human Rights in the European Context 17
Henriette D.C. Roscam Abbing

Right to Health as a Human Right in Europe 31
Matti Mikkola, University of Helsinki

The raison d'être of Nordic Health Law 49
Mette Hartlev, University of Copenhagen

The Right to Health from a Constitutional Perspective – the Example of the Nordic Countries 67
Anna-Sara Lind, Uppsala University

Health Law as a Legal Discipline 77
Helle Bødker Madsen, Aarhus University

The Nordic Committee on Bioethics 93
Sirpa Soini, University of Helsinki

Part 2  Patients' Rights 105
The Development of Patients' Rights in Norway 107
Asbjørn Kjønstad, University of Oslo

Still no Patients' Act in Sweden – Reasons and Implications 122
Elisabeth Rynning, Uppsala University

Human Rights, Health Care, and Coercion in Norwegian Health Law 137
Aslak Syse, University of Oslo

Detention of Pregnant Women to Protect the Foetus – Nordic Perspectives 158
Karl Harald Søvig, University of Bergen

Cultural Accommodation in Health Services and European Human Rights 181
Oddný Mjöll Arnardóttir, Reykjavík University

Female Genital Mutilation and the Right to Privacy: a Double-edged Sword 201
Henriette Sinding Aasen, University of Bergen
Infant Male Circumcision – Finnish Supreme Court Ruling on a Multicultural Legal Protection
Raimo Lahti, University of Helsinki

Mutual Recognition within the EU of the Concepts of Sickness and Incapacity for Work in a Rehabilitive Situation
Lotta Vahlne Westerhäll, University of Gothenburg

Part 3 Biomedical Science

Human Dignity as a Legal Argument in the Era of Modern Biomedicine
Laura Walin, University of Helsinki

European Integration – a Case Example from European Biomedical Research Law
Sigmund Simonsen, Norwegian University of Science and Technology

The Human Body and Norwegian Property Law – Ancient and Modern
Marit Halvorsen, University of Oslo

Biobank Regulation in Finland and the Nordic Countries
Salla Silvola, University of Helsinki

Genetic Privacy: Autonomy or Solidarity?
Line Bune Juhl, University of Aalborg

Death Before Life: The Legal Status of Cadaveric Foetuses
Janne Rothmar Herrmann, University of Copenhagen