THE LAW OF TREES, FORESTS AND HEDGES

Second Edition

CHARLES MYNORS
MA (Arch), MA (TP), Dip Law, PhD, FRTP, FRICS, IRTPI, Member of the Middle Temple and the Inn of Court of Northern Ireland; Chancellor of the Diocese of Worcester; Visiting Professor, Oxford Brookes University with

SIR CRISPIN AGNEW Bt, QC
Advocate; Deputy Judge of the Upper Tribunal
(Chapter 15: The general law in Scotland)
Contents

Full table of contents

PART I. INTRODUCTION
1. Introduction 3

PART II. TREES AND HEDGES: THE GENERAL LAW
2. Ownership of trees: general principles 31
3. Ownership of boundary trees and hedges 65
4. Boundary trees: liability 79
5. Problems with boundary trees: remedies 113
6. Boundary hedges 139
7. Owners’ liability for trees: legal principles 171
8. Hazardous trees: the duty of care in practice 205
9. Dangerous trees: the consequences 231
10. Trees and highways 251
11. Trees and statutory undertakers 291
12. Other forms of liability for trees 299
13. Carrying out works to trees and hedges 315
14. Planting trees and hedges 363
15. Trees and the law in Scotland 375

PART III. COMMERCIAL FORESTRY
16. Forestry 387
17. Financial considerations 419
18. Felling licences 443
19. Felling directions 479
20. Environmental impact of forestry 485

PART IV. PROTECTION FOR TREES AND WOODLANDS OF SPECIAL VALUE
21. Trees and woodlands of special value 513
22. Making a tree preservation order 563
23. Works to protected trees: the need for consent
24. Tree consent: applications and appeals
25. Compensation for adverse decisions
26. Requirement to plant replacement trees
27. Unauthorised works to protected trees
28. Trees in conservation areas
29. Trees in churchyards
30. Protection of trees in Scotland and Ireland

PART V. PROTECTION FOR SPECIAL HEDGEROWS

31. Inclosure Act hedgerows
32. Protection of important hedgerows

APPENDICES
A. Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (relevant provisions, following amendment by the Planning Act 2008 and the Localism Act 2011)
B. Sample conditions for use with planning permissions
C. Sample conditions for use with consents under tree preservation orders
D. Penalties for criminal offences

INDEX