TRILATERAL PERSPECTIVES ON INTERNATIONAL LEGAL ISSUES: FROM THEORY INTO PRACTICE

Thomas J. Schoenbaum
Junji Nakagawa
Linda C. Reif
Editors

Transnational Publishers, Inc.
Ardsley, New York 10502
CONTENTS

Preface vii

Introduction ix

Thomas J. Schoenbaum, Junji Nakagawa & Linda C. Reif

PART I
THEORETICAL PERSPECTIVES ON COMPLIANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW

Summary 3

Kristin Leigh Case

Chapter 1: The Concept of Compliance as a Function of Competing Conceptions of International Law 9

Benedict Kingsbury

Chapter 2: Carrots, Sticks, or Stepping-Stones: Differing Perspectives on Compliance with International Law 35

Karin Mickelson

Chapter 3: Securing Compliance in Traditional and Contemporary International Law: A Theoretical Analysis 49

Junji Nakagawa

Naoya Okuwaki

Chapter 5: Development Cooperation and Compliance with International Environmental Law: Past Experience and Future Prospects 89

Phillip M. Saunders
PART II
HUMAN RIGHTS

Summary
Linda C. Reif

Chapter 6: Reservations to Multilateral Human Rights Treaties: The General Comment of the Human Rights Committee and the Critique of the Comment
Hisuke Ando

Chapter 7: The Domestic Impact of Acts of International Organizations Relating to Human Rights
Yuji Iwasawa

Chapter 8: Democracy and Difference: Democratic Rights and Separatist Claims
Diane F. Orentlicher

Chapter 9: International Tribunals and Universal Norms: The Case of Inhuman Treatment and the Death Row Phenomenon
William A. Schabas

Chapter 10: The Impact of Human Rights Conventions on the Nationality Law and the Practices of Japan
Junko Torii

PART III
ARMS CONTROL

Summary
Kiki Caruson

Chapter 11: Effectiveness and Limitations of Challenge Inspection: A Comparative Study of the Chemical Weapons Convention and Other Arms Control Agreements
Masahiko Asada

Chapter 12: The Future of Nuclear Proliferation
Philip Bobbitt
Contents

Chapter 13: Improving Incentives for Compliance with Nonproliferation Regimes
   Dorinda G. Dallmeyer 273

Chapter 14: Compliance with and Strengthening of the Nonproliferation Regime
   Mitsuru Kurosawa 291

Chapter 15: Keeping the Lid on Proliferation of Armaments of Mass Destruction: A Global Agenda for International Peace and Security
   K. Venkata Raman 301

PART IV
TRADE AND INVESTMENT

Summary
   Kristin Leigh Case and Nicolas R. Foster 327

Chapter 16: Crafting Mechanisms for Settling International Trade Disputes: WTO and NAFTA as Models
   Donald M. McRae 331

Chapter 17: Economic Sanctions and Compliance: Theoretical Aspects
   Kazuhiro Nakatani 347

Chapter 18: Restrictive Business Practices and Market Contestability in International Trade Law
   Thomas J. Schoenbaum 365

Chapter 19: The Case for a Multilateral Agreement for Investment Promotion
   Akio Shimizu 379

Chapter 20: The Current Monetary System and International Business Decisions
   Kazuaki Sono 387

Contributors 395

Index 401