CONTENTS

CONTRIBUTORS’ LIST ................................................................. vii

INTRODUCTION .......................................................................... ix
   Peter Zweifel

PART 1 HEALTH .............................................................................. 1

1 The Impact of the Environment on the Demands for Health and Health Care: An Empirical Analysis for Germany .......................................................... 3
   Manfred Erbsland, Walter Ried, and Volker Ulrich

2 The Demand for Health: An Empirical Test of the Grossman Model Using Panel Data ............................................................................. 35
   Sandra Nocera and Peter Zweifel

3 Counting and Discounting Gained Life-Years ........................................ 51
   Jes Søgaard and Dorte Gyrd-Hansen

4 Inequality in Infant Mortality in Portugal, 1971–1991 ................................................................. 75
   João A. Pereira

5 Health, Work-Hours, and Wages in Sweden ........................................... 95
   Gun Sundberg

6 The Determinants of Health Expenditure in the OECD Countries: A Pooled Data Analysis .............................................................. 113
   Ulf-G Gerdtham, Bengt Jönsson, Maitland MacFarlan, and Howard Oxley

PART 2 THE MEDICAL PROFESSION ............................................. 135

7 Clinical Response of Salaried Consultants to Economic Incentives ..................................................... 137
   Tor Iversen
8 The Use of Multilevel Analysis in Health Economics: An Application to Examining the Effect of Competition on General Practitioners' Behavior..............................159
   Anthony Scott and Alan Shiell

9 A Comparative Application of Econometric Frontier and DEA Methods for Assessing Cost Efficiency of Finnish Hospitals .................................................................169
   Miika Linna and Unto Hääkinen

PART 3 REGULATION .................................................................................189

10 Financial Incentives and Primary Care Provision in Britain: Do General Practitioners Maximise their Income? ...............................................................191
   Mauricea Lynch

11 Cream-Skimming in Deregulated Social Health Insurance: Evidence from Switzerland .........................................................211
   Konstantin Beck and Peter Zweifel

12 Modeling Cross-Border Care in the EU Using a Principal-Agent Framework .................................................229
   Luca Crivelli and Peter Zweifel

INDEX ..................................................................................................259