CONTENTS

Tables and Charts vii
Preface ix

Part 1: Constitutive Theory

Introduction: Postmodernism and Constitutive Theory
  • Stuart Henry and Dragan Milovanovic 3

Chapter 1. Constitutive Criminology: An Introduction to the Core Concepts  • Andrew Bak 17

Chapter 2. Sex, Law and the Paradox of Agency and Resistance in the Everyday Practices of Women in the “Evergreen” Sex Trade
  • Lisa Sanchez 39

Chapter 3. Constitutive Theory and the Homeless Identity: The Discourse of a Community Deviant  • Bruce A. Arrigo 67

Chapter 4. Constituting O.J.: Mass-Mediated Trials and Newsmaking Criminology  • Gregg Barak 87
Chapter 5. Reconstituting the Monster: Images of Techno-Criminality at Century's End
• Dion Dennis 111

Chapter 6. Bodies of Law: The Supreme Court, the Justices, and Death • John Brigham 127

Part 3: Societal Responses: Policing and Penology

Chapter 7. Taking It to the Streets: Policing and the Practice of Constitutive Criminology
• James W. Williams 149

Chapter 9. Agency and Choice in Women's Prisons: Toward a Constitutive Penology
• Mary Bosworth 205

Chapter 10. Revisiting Jailhouse Lawyers: An Excursion into Constitutive Criminology
• Jim Thomas and Dragan Milovanovic 227

Part 4: Institutional Transformation and Constitutive Justice

Chapter 11. Intentional Communities, the Fourth Way: A Constitutive Integration • Robert C. Schehr 249

Conclusion: Constitutive Criminology Engages Its Critics—An Assessment • Stuart Henry and Dragan Milovanovic 287

About the Contributors 307

Index 309