Intermediaries in International Conflict

Thomas Princen
CONTENTS

List of Figures xi

Preface xiii

PART ONE: The Nature of Intermediary Intervention

CHAPTER ONE
Introduction: Intermediaries in International Conflict 3

The Prevalence of Intermediary Intervention 4
The Function of Intermediaries in International Conflict Management 7
Intermediary Influence and the Study of International Relations and Negotiation 12
Conclusion 16

CHAPTER TWO
Third Parties: Principals and Neutrals 18

Third-Party Interests and Capabilities 19
The Target of Intervention 23
Impediments to Reaching Agreement 27
The Neutral’s Dilemma 29
Conclusion 30

CHAPTER THREE
The Bases of Intermediary Influence: Reconfiguration, Proposal Making, and Information Pooling 32

Bargaining Structure 32
Third Parties and the Structure of the Bargain 36
Conclusion 44

CHAPTER FOUR
The Intermediary’s Decision Problems: Entry and Exit 46

Direct Negotiations 47
Intervention Question 47
Intermediary Interests 48
Entry Decision: Gaining Control 51
Exit Decision: Urging Agreement 54
Conclusion 59
CHAPTER FIVE
The Disputants' Decision Problems: Acceptance, Initiation,
Role Bargaining
  Acceptance 60
  Initiation 63
  Role Bargain 64
  Conclusion 66

PART TWO: Intermediary Intervention in Practice: Principal Mediators

CHAPTER SIX
Camp David: Jimmy Carter Mediates between Israel and Egypt,
1977–1979 69
  The Case 70
  Analysis of Carter's Intervention 86
  Conclusion 104

CHAPTER SEVEN
Portsmouth: Theodore Roosevelt Mediates between Russia and Japan, 1904–1984 107
  The Case 108
  Analysis of Roosevelt's Intervention 122
  Conclusion 129

PART THREE: Intermediary Intervention in Practice: Neutral Mediators

CHAPTER EIGHT
Vatican: Pope John Paul II Mediates between Argentina and Chile, 1978–1984 133
  The Case 133
  Analysis of the Vatican Intervention 162
  Conclusion 183

CHAPTER NINE
Biafra: The OAU, the British, and the Quakers Mediate in the Nigerian Civil War, 1967–1970 186
  The Case 187
  Analysis of the Biafra Interventions 199
  Conclusion 211