Coping with Corruption in a Borderless World

Proceedings of the Fifth
International Anti-Corruption Conference

Editors:

Maurice Punch
Emile Kolthoff
Kees van der Vijver
Bram van Vliet

Kluwer Law and Taxation Publishers
Deventer • Boston

1993
Part I - General Aspects of Corruption

1. Introduction

2. Key issues
   Maurice Punch

3. Defining Corruption
   John Gardiner
   3.1. Corruption and Related Public Problems
   3.1.1. Corruption by Public Officials
   3.1.2. Abuse of Office by Public Officials
   3.1.3. Business Corruption, Fraud, Theft, Abuse, Error and Waste
   3.1.4. Organized Crime and Racketeering
   3.2. Definitions of Corruption: Legal, Public Interest and Public Opinion Criteria
   3.2.1. Legal Definitions of Corruption
   3.2.2. Public Interest Definitions of Corruption
   3.2.3. Public Opinion Definitions of Corruption
   3.3. Variations Among Nations
   3.4. Implications of the Definitions for the Attack on Corruption

4. Corruption as a Process
   Michael Johnston
   4.1. Introduction
   4.2. Developing the Idea of Corruption
   4.2.1. Politics and the Idea of Corruption
7.6. Destabilization
8. Social Integrity in a New World Order
   Jan Tinbergen

8.1. Definition of Corruption
8.2. Factors Making for Corruption
8.3. Problems Humanity Has to Solve
8.4. World Management
8.5. Shifts in Relative Urgency of Great Problems
8.6. Possibility of More Corruption

Part II - Proceedings of the Workshops

9. The Consequences of Internationalization
   Jan Wiarda

10. Mismanagement and Corruption
   Michiel Holtackers

11. Corruption and Community Relations
    Fernando Castillo

12. Accountancy and Corruption
    Jaap van Manen

13. Corruption in Europe I
    Kees van der Vijver

14. Corruption in Europe II
    Bram van Vliet

15. Money Laundering and Business Services
    Joost Italianer

16. Self Control of Corruption in the Private Sector
    Joyce Blatock
17. The Press, Public Opinion and Corruption 147
   Emile Kolthoff

18. Organized Crime and Corruption; Policing the Police 153
   Maurice Punch

19. Corruption in Eastern Europe 159
   Gerard Blonk

20. Sociological and Ethical Aspects of Corruption 163
   Frans Denkers

21. Conclusion 166

List of contributors 169