ARBITRAL TRIBUNALS OR STATE COURTS
WHO MUST DEFER TO WHOM?

ASA Swiss Arbitration Association
IBA International Bar Association
Conference in Zurich of January 28, 2000
Reports and Materials
edited by Pierre A. Karrer
Table of Contents

Introduction .................................................................................................................. 7
  Pierre A. Karrer

Arbitral Tribunals or State Court – Who must defer to whom? .......... 15
  Peter Schlosser

Parallel proceedings before State Courts and Arbitration
Tribunals. Is there a Transnational lis pendens - Exception in Arbitration or Jurisdiction Conventions? ................................................. 35
  Hans van Houtte

Arbitration and Issue Preclusion: a view from America ....................... 55
  Andreas F. Lowenfeld

Parallel Actions Pending before an Arbitral Tribunal and a State Court: The Solution under Swiss Law ............................................. 65
  François Perret

Anti-Suit Injunctions and the Arbitration Process ................................... 85
  Lawrence Collins QC

Some questions on the need for specific provisions in the Brussels and Lugano Conventions and for a "European
New York Convention" ......................................................................................... 97
  Gustav Möller / Paul Storm

The global context: is global harmonisation needed? ......................... 101
  Catherine Kessedjian

The 1958 New York Arbitration Convention Revisited .................... 125
  Albert Jan van den Berg

Concluding remarks on relationship between state courts and arbitral tribunals ......................................................................................... 147
  Jean-François Poudret