Epistemology and Method in Law

GEOFFREY SAMUEL
Kent Law School, UK

ASHGATE
Contents

Series Preface vii
Preface viii
List of Cases x
List of Roman Law References xvi
List of Statutes xxi
List of Abbreviations xxv

Introductory Remarks 1

1 The Scope of Legal Epistemology 11
The Domain of Epistemology 12
Approaches to Epistemology 20
Legal Epistemology and Legal History 25
Internal versus External Approaches to Epistemology 38

2 Scientia Iuris 53
Science 54
Legal Science 60
The Retreat from Science 71
Legal Science and Codification 83

3 Methodologies in Law 95
Inductive Reasoning in Roman Law 95
Deductive Reasoning and the Codes 104
Professional Viewpoints 107

4 Institutions and Concepts 125
Legal Institutions 125
Legal Concepts 138
Property and Sovereignty 149

5 Facts and Law 173
Facts and the Rule Model 173
Moving beyond the Rules 181
Facts as Images 188
Categorising Facts 196
Statutory Texts and Factual Images 200

6 Taxonomy in Law 217
Classification and Knowledge 217
Legal Classification 220
Beyond the Institutional Categories 233
Classification in the Common Law 238
Taxonomy and Specialisation 247

7 Theories of Liability 263
Subjective and Objective Theories 263
Categorising the Mind 277

8 Schemes of Intelligibility in Social Science 295
Natural Sciences and Human Sciences 295
Typology of Schemes 301
Holistic and Individual Facts 320

Concluding Remarks 335

Bibliography 343
Index 365