Criminal Law Theory: Doctrines of the General Part

edited by Stephen Shute
and
A.P. Simester

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

List of Contributors x

1. On the General Part in Criminal Law
   A.P. Simester and Stephen Shute 1

2. Limitations on Criminalization and the General Part of Criminal Law
   Douglas N. Husak 13

3. Rule-Violations and Wrongdoings
   R.A. Duff 47

4. The Modern General Part: Three Illusions
   Paul H. Robinson 75

5. Making Criminal Law Known
   Peter Alldridge 103

6. Criminal Liability for Omissions: An Inventory of Issues
   Larry Alexander 121

7. Involuntary Crimes, Voluntarily Committed
   Claire Finkelstein 143

8. Knowledge and Belief in the Criminal Law
   Stephen Shute 171

9. Knowledge, Belief, and Culpability
   G.R. Sullivan 207

10. Recklessness and the Duty to Take Care
    Victor Tadros 227

11. Battered Women Who Kill Their Sleeping Tormenters:
    Reflections on Maintaining Respect for Human Life while Killing Moral Monsters
    Joshua Dressler 259

    Jeremy Horder 283

13. Testing Fidelity to Legal Values: Official Involvement and Criminal Justice
    Andrew Ashworth 299

Index of Subjects 331

Name Index 333