FORUM SHOPPING AND VENUE IN TRANSNATIONAL LITIGATION

ANDREW S BELL
BA, LLB (Syd); BCL, DPhil (Oxon)
Barrister, New South Wales
Sometime Vinerian Scholar in the University of Oxford

With a Foreword by
Sir Anthony Mason AC, KBE
Chief Justice of Australia 1987–1995
Justice of the High Court of Australia 1972–1987

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Table of Cases xvii
Table of Legislation xliii
Table of Conventions xlvii
Table of Abbreviations xlix

Chapter 1 INTRODUCTION
I. Transnational Litigation and the Global Economy 1.01
II. Transnational Litigation and Concurrent Jurisdiction 1.10
   1. ‘Modern’ Defendants: Ubiquitous and Vulnerable 1.13
   2. ‘Exorbitant’ Jurisdiction 1.19
   3. The Problems of Concurrent Jurisdiction 1.26
III. The Importance of Venue 1.31
IV. Venue in Transnational Litigation: Outline 1.44

Chapter 2 VENUE AND THE PLAINTIFF—THE INCENTIVES FOR FORUM SHOPPING 2.01
I. Three Dimensions of Uniformity 2.01
II. The Significance of Procedure 2.09
   1. The United States—A Forum Shopper’s Delight 2.14
   2. Beyond America: Further Procedural Inducements 2.28
III. Lack of Uniformity in Domestic Law 2.33
IV. Divergence in Choice of Law Rules and Practice 2.37
V. Conclusion 2.58

Chapter 3 CONCEPTUAL RESPONSES TO FORUM SHOPPING AND CONCURRENT JURISDICTION 3.01
I. Introduction 3.01
II. Jurisdiction Allocated by Convention 3.03
Contents

III. Common Law Regulation of Jurisdiction 3.68
   1. The Traditional Common Law Approach 3.71
   2. The 'Natural Forum'—Emergence of a Concept 3.78
   3. The Natural Forum—The Concept Considered 3.84
   4. The Natural Forum—The Concept Criticized 3.149

IV. Conclusion 3.170

Chapter 4 VENUE AND THE DEFENDANT—REVERSE FORUM SHOPPING 4.01
   I. Options for the Defendant 4.01
   II. Challenging Jurisdiction 4.12
      1. Challenging the Jurisdiction of Common Law Courts 4.13
      2. Constitutional Dimensions to Jurisdictional Challenges 4.27
   III. Staying Proceedings—Forum Non Conveniens 4.38
      1. Spiliada Applied 4.44
      2. Australian Abstention 4.67
      3. Forum Non Conveniens in the United States 4.74
   IV. Anti-Suit Injunctions 4.79
      1. Jurisdiction to Restrain Foreign Proceedings 4.84
      2. 'Protective' Anti-Suit Injunctions 4.125
      3. Anti-Suit Injunctions Upholding Legal Rights 4.146
      4. Restraint of Vexatious and Oppressive Foreign Proceedings 4.179
      5. Anti-Suit Injunctions and the Claims of Comity 4.223
   V. Negative Declaratory Proceedings 4.250
      1. The Mechanics of Negative Declaratory Relief 4.251
      2. Negative Declarations in the Common Law 4.261
   VI. Ignoring Foreign Proceedings 4.294
      1. Threats to the Strategy—I 4.295
      2. Threats to the Strategy—II 4.296
   VII. Conclusion 4.304

Chapter 5 VENUE BY CONSENSUS—THE ROLE OF JURISDICTION AND ARBITRATION AGREEMENTS 5.01
   I. The Nature and Importance of Jurisdiction and Arbitration Agreements 5.01
   II. Escaping the Bargain 5.15
      1. The Existence of the Jurisdiction or Arbitration Agreement 5.16
      2. Voidability of the Agreement 5.27