CONTENTS

Contributors ................................................................. xiii
Preface ................................................................. xv
Acknowledgments ............................................................. xix
Introduction ................................................................. 3

Part I. Sexually Violent Predator Laws: Problems and Solutions ........................................ 25

Chapter 1. The New Generation of Sex Offender Commitment Laws: Which States Have Them and How Do They Work? ................................. 27
W. Lawrence Fitch and Debra A. Hammen

Chapter 2. State Policy Perspectives on Sexual Predator Laws ........................................ 41
Roxanne Lieb

Part II. Sex Offenders and Dangerousness ................................................................. 61

Chapter 3. Who Is Dangerous and When Are They Safe? Risk Assessment With Sexual Offenders .......... 63
R. Karl Hanson

Chapter 4. Evaluating Offenders Under a Sexually Violent Predator Law: The Practical Practice .......... 75
Roy B. Lacoursiere
Part III. Sex Offenders and Treatment ........................................ 99

Chapter 5. What We Know and Don't Know About Treating Adult Sex Offenders ........................................ 101
Marnie E. Rice and Grant T. Harris

Chapter 6. Treatment and the Civil Commitment of Sex Offenders ........................................ 119
Eric S. Janus

Chapter 7. In the Wake of Hendricks: The Treatment and Restraint of Sexually Dangerous Offenders Viewed From the Perspective of American Psychiatry .... 131
Howard V. Zonana, Richard J. Bonnie, and Steven K. Hoge

Part IV. The Rationale, Constitutionality, and Morality of Sexual Predator Commitment Laws ........................................ 147

Chapter 8. Matching Legal Policies With Known Offenders ........................................ 149
Leonore M. J. Simon

Chapter 9. Bad or Mad?: Sex Offenders and Social Control ........................................ 165
Stephen J. Morse

Chapter 10. “Even a Dog ...”: Culpability, Condemnation, and Respect for Persons ........................................ 183
Robert F. Schopp

Chapter 11. Sex Offenders and the Supreme Court: The Significance and Limits of Kansas v. Hendricks ........................................ 197
John Kip Cornwell

Part V. Alternative Strategies for Protecting the Community .... 211

Chapter 12. A Therapeutic Jurisprudence Analysis of Sex Offender Registration and Community Notification Laws ........................................ 213
Bruce J. Winick
Chapter 13. Investing in the Future of Children: Building Programs for Children or Prisons for Adult Offenders .......................... 231
William D. Pithers, Alison Gray, and Michalle E. Davis

Chapter 14. Chemical Castration of Sex Offenders: Treatment or Punishment? .......................... 249
Robert D. Miller

Chapter 15. Community Containment of Sex Offender Risk: A Promising Approach ......................... 265
Kim English, Linda Jones, and Diane Patrick

Part VI. Evaluating the Wisdom of Sexually Violent Predator Laws ................................................. 281

Chapter 16. The Costs of Enacting a Sexual Predator Law and Recommendations for Keeping Them From Skyrocketing .......................... 283
John Q. La Fond

Chapter 17. Managing the Monstrous: Sex Offenders and the New Penology .................................. 301
Jonathan Simon

Chapter 18. A Therapeutic Jurisprudence Assessment of Sexually Violent Predator Laws .................. 317
Bruce J. Winick

Conclusion ......................................................... 333

Table of Authorities ............................................. 341

Author Index .................................................. 345

Subject Index .................................................. 353

About the Editors ............................................. 371