Globalization of Capital and the Nation-State

Imperialism, Class Struggle, and the State in the Age of Global Capitalism

Berch Berberoglu
Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: The Political Economy of Globalization and Its Contradictions 1

1 Theories of the Global Economy and Global Empire 13

2 The Logic of Global Capitalist Expansion: Theories of Modern Imperialism 25

3 The Controversy over Globalization, Imperialism, and Capitalist Development on a World Scale 47

4 The Postwar Rise of U.S. Capital onto the Global Scene 57

5 The Globalization of U.S. Capital and the Resurgence of Interimperialist Rivalry 65

6 The Imperial State and Control of the Global Political Economy 87

7 Global Capitalist Expansion and Domestic Economic Decline in the United States 97

8 The Globalization of Capital and the Capitalist State in the Third World 107

9 Globalization, Class Struggle, and Social Transformation 123
Contents

Conclusion 135
Bibliography 139
Index 161
About the Author 167