Governing Networks

EGPA Yearbook

Edited by

Ari Salminen

Professor, Department of Public Management, University of Vaasa, Finland

IOS Press
Amsterdam • Berlin • Oxford • Tokyo • Washington, DC
Contents

Foreword v
Ignace Snellen

Acknowledgements vii
Ari Salminen

Keynote Addresses

Networking Central Government
Juhani Turunen

Putting People Back into Networks
R.A.W. Rhodes

Workshops on the Conference Theme

Workshop I. Public Administration in Networks

Networks and Governance: a perspective on public policy and public administration
Erik-Hans Klijn

The Formation and Stagnation of a Health Care Network
Yann B. Malara and Yolande E. Chan

Will Networks and Hierarchies ever Meet?
Anita Niemi-Iilahti

New Labour and the Politics of Governance
Janet Newman

Comparing Professional Policy Networks: the legal and policing professions in England and Wales
Stephen Cope and Peter Starie

ix
Workshop II. Governance and Information Technology

Public Administration as a Network: promises and pitfalls of a pervasive paradigm
Wim van de Donk 123

Matching ICT networks and PA Networks: lessons to be learned
Ignace Snellen 129

Diverging Trajectories: explaining different levels of success in public sector ICT
Frank Bannister 143

Participatory E-governance – a new solution to an old problem?
Juha Mattila 161

The Influence of ICT on the Organisation and Functioning of the Public Sector in Slovenia
Mirko Vintar, Mitja Dečman, Mateja Kunstelj and Anamarija Leben 171

Modernizing Public Services: the possibilities and challenges of electronic services in the Finnish public sector
Ulla Kauppi, Kirsi Lähdesmäki and Ilpo Ojala 191

Taking Citizens Seriously: applying Hirschman’s model to various practices of customer-oriented e-governance
Hein van Duivenboden and Miriam Lips 209

MPs in the Network Society: agenda-setters or puppets on a string?
Jens Hoff 227

L’usage d’Internet entre administrations et administrés français : vers une rupture du lien d’égalité des citoyens devant le service public ?
Renaud de La Brosse 241

Neighbourhoods On-line: connecting physical and virtual spaces in Dutch cities
Miriam Lips, Marcel Boogers and Rodney Weterings 255

Lights, Camera, Action!: networks discourse and diffusion in the closed circuit television policy arena
C. William R. Webster 277
Selection of Papers of the Permanent Study Groups

Quality of Public Service Delivery and Trust in Government
Geert Bouckaert and Steven Van de Walle

319

Trust and Satisfaction: a case study of the micro-performance theory
Jarl K. Kampen, Bart Maddens and Jeroen Vermunt

Labour Relations in the Belgian, French, German and Dutch Public Services
Koen Nomden

327

Multi-level Governance, Network Governance, and Fiscal Federalism Theory
Nico Groenendijk

349

Emerging Practices in Network Management at Local Levels in Europe
Tony Bovaird, Elke Löffler and Salvador Parrado Diez

371

Responsibility in Flames: a case study of the New Year's Eve catastrophe in Volendam
Alex Cachet, Harry H.F.M. Daemen, Arthur B. Ringeling and Linze Schaap

387

Reports of the EGPA Permanent Study Groups

Productivity and Quality in the Public Sector
Geert Bouckaert and Petri Uusikylä

403

Personnel Policies
David Farnham, Annie Hondeghem and Sylvia Horton

407

Public Finance and Management
Mihály Hőgye

411

East-West Co-operation in Public Administration
György Jenei and Frits van den Berg

417

The Development of Contractualisation in the Public Sector since 1980
Gavin Drewry

421

Management and Delivery of Justice
Philip M. Langbroek and Marco Fabri

425
Local Governance 429
Tony Bovaird, Elke Löffler and Salvador Parrado Diez

Report of the EGPA Research Group

Public Governance: an interdisciplinary and international perspective 435
Walter Kickert

About EGPA 439
List of EGPA Publications 441
Author Index 443