PETER F. LAU, EDITOR

From the Grassroots to the Supreme Court

Brown v. Board of Education and American Democracy

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Peter F. Lau Introduction 1

Part I Historical Contexts: Views from the Grassroots

Blair L. M. Kelley Plessy and Early Challenges to the Doctrine of "Separate, but Equal" 19

Vicki L. Ruiz Tapestries of Resistance: Episodes of School Segregation and Desegregation in the Western United States 44

Raymond Gavins Within the Shadow of Jim Crow: Black Struggles for Education and Liberation in North Carolina 68

Kara Miles Turner "Liberating Lifescripts": Prince Edward County, Virginia, and the Roots of Brown v. Board of Education 88

Peter F. Lau From the Periphery to the Center: Clarendon County, South Carolina, Brown, and the Struggle for Democracy and Equality in America 105

Part II Advocates, Judges, and the Making of Brown

Larissa M. Smith A Civil Rights Vanguard: Black Attorneys and the NAACP in Virginia 129

Patricia Sullivan Prelude to Brown: Education and the Struggle for Racial Justice during the NAACP’s Formative Decades, 1909–1934 154

Christopher W. Schmidt J. Waties Waring and the Making of Liberal Jurisprudence in Postwar America 173

Michael J. Klaman Brown v. Board of Education: Law or Politics? 198

Part III Historical Impact: Views from the Grassroots

Tomiko Brown-Nagin The Impact of Lawyer-Client Disengagement on the NAACP’s Campaign to Implement Brown v. Board of Education in Atlanta 227

Christina Greene "The New Negro Ain’t Scared No More!": Black Women’s Activism in North Carolina and the Meaning of Brown 245