The Civil Rights Movement

MARK NEWMAN

EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY PRESS
Contents

Abbreviations vii
Chronology ix

1 Prerequisites for Change 1
   The Nature of Racial Discrimination 6
   The Great Migration 9
   The New Deal 14
   Challenges to Injustice in the South 19

2 The Emergence of the Movement, 1941–59 33
   The Impact of the Second World War 34
   Jim Crow under Attack 43
   Massive Resistance 50
   The Movement Stalled 59

3 The End of Jim Crow in the South, 1960–5 69
   The Sit-ins 70
   The Kennedy Administration and Civil Rights 77
   The Civil Rights Act of 1964 90
   Selma and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 94

4 The Disintegration of the National Civil Rights Coalition, 1964–8 101
   The Mississippi Summer Project 101
   Northern Protests 110
   Black Power 116
   The Poor People’s Campaign 127
5 Civil Rights in a Conservative Era
   Nixon's 'Southern Strategy'
   A New South? Protest and Politics
   The Struggle in the North
   The Federal Government and Civil Rights: From Ford to Reagan

6 Conclusion

Suggestions for Further Reading
Index