Fast Track:
A Legal, Historical, and Political Analysis

HAL S. SHAPIRO

Transnational Publishers
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ................................................. xiii
Foreword ......................................................... xv
List of Abbreviations ............................................ xvii

Chapter 1: Introduction ........................................... 1

Chapter 2: The History of Fast Track ............................ 9
A. Congressional Control of International Trade .............. 10
B. Initial Delegation of Authority to the President .......... 11
C. Expansion of the President's Role and Presidential Overreaching ............................................. 11
D. Balancing the Roles of Congress and the President ....... 12
E. Renewal and Expansion ..................................... 16

Chapter 3: How Fast Track Works ............................... 19
A. Congressional Oversight Provisions ............................ 19
B. Fast-Track Legislative Procedures ............................. 23
C. Methods of Withdrawing Fast Track ........................... 25

Chapter 4: The Divisive Battle to Renew Fast Track in 2002 . 29
A. The House Debate ............................................. 30
B. The Senate Debate ............................................ 33
C. A Second One-Vote Margin in the House ................. 35
D. The Conference Compromise and the Third
   Close House Vote .......................................... 36
E. TPA: A Change in Name Only? ................................. 38
   1. Updated Negotiating Objectives ......................... 38
   2. Limited Procedural Changes .............................. 40
F. Extension of Trade Promotion Authority .................... 41

Chapter 5: Fast Track and the Constitution .................... 43
A. Fast Track's Place in the U.S. Constitutional Order ...... 44
   1. The Relevant Constitutional Text .......................... 44
   2. Sole Executive Agreements as Alternatives to Treaties ... 46
      a. Sole Executive Agreements and Their Effect in Domestic Law .................................. 47
      b. Relationship of Sole Executive Agreements to Inconsistent Federal Laws ............................. 48
c. Relationship of Sole Executive Agreements to Inconsistent State Laws ........................................ 52

3. Congressional-Executive Agreements as Replacements for Treaties ........................................ 54

B. Constitutional Questions About Fast Track:
Can Fast Track Bind Future Congresses and Can Congress Repeal It Without New Legislation? .................. 56

1. Does Fast Track Constitute Impermissible Legislative Entrenchment? ........................................ 57
   a. Legislative Equality ........................................ 57
   b. Legislative Entrenchment .................................... 58
   c. The Supreme Court Disfavors Legislative Entrenchment ......................................................... 58
   d. Application of Legislative Entrenchment Principles to Fast Track ........................................... 59
   e. Are Fast-Track Congressional Procedures Just Rules or a Statute? ....................................... 61

2. Reserving the Right to Change the Rules: Unicameral Repeal and Legislative Veto Issues .................. 62
   a. INS v. Chadha ............................................. 63
   b. Function Over Form .......................................... 66
      i. Seeing Through Formalism ................................. 66
      ii. The Inseparable Nature of Fast-Track Congressional Procedures ........................................... 67
      iii. Substantive Provisions .................................... 69

3. Evading Review Under the Political Question Doctrine ......................................................... 71

Chapter 6: Is Fast Track Necessary? .......................................................... 79

A. Uses of Fast Track .......................................................... 80

B. The Need for Legislation ...................................................... 81

C. The Advantages and Disadvantages of Treaties .......................................................... 83
   1. The Advantages .............................................. 84
   2. The Disadvantages ............................................. 85

D. The Need to Go Through the House of Representatives .................................................. 86
   1. The House Argument .......................................... 87
   2. Presidents Have Deferred to the House Throughout U.S. History .......................................... 88

E. A Peculiarly American Institution? .................................................. 92
   1. The European Union: Agricultural Trade and the Uruguay Round ........................................... 94
      a. The Commission Must Gain a Near Consensus in the Council .......................................... 95
      b. A One-Country Veto: France's Challenge on Agricultural Trade ........................................ 97
2. Australia: Challenges in a Parliamentary System
   a. The Australian Government: Background
   b. Garnering Approval of the AUSFTA:
      The Prime Minister's Challenge
3. Switzerland: The Challenges of Direct Democracy
   a. Optional and Mandatory Referenda
   b. Anticipatory Effects on Negotiations
   c. The Swiss Public's Veto Power

Chapter 7: Is There a Role for the States?
A. The U.S. Constitutional Framework
   1. Shared Powers
   2. Exclusive Powers
   3. The Power to Regulate Foreign Commerce
B. The Dispossession of State Power in Foreign Affairs:
   A Theoretical and Reality Dichotomy
   1. Considerations Suggesting the Exclusion of States
      From Regulating Foreign Commerce
   2. The Muddled Reality
C. The WTO and Sub-Federal Governments
D. The Uruguay Round Agreements Act
E. Augmenting the Model
F. The Federal Veto: Striking a Balance Between International Chaos and Plurilateralism
G. A Return to Counterambition

Chapter 8: A Prescription for Progress
A. The Trade Race: Is the United States Falling Behind?
   1. The World Is Changing and Trade Is Increasing the Pace of Change
   2. American Companies May Be Thriving,
      But Are Americans?
   4. Expanding Use of FTAs
   5. Is Asia Turning Away From the United States?
   6. Other Possible Asia-Pacific FTAs
   7. The Importance of Pacific-Rim Trade
B. The Schizophrenic Nature of U.S. Trade Politics
   1. Defining the Liberal and Conservative Positions
      a. The Liberal Position
      b. The Classical Conservative Position
   2. The Central Role of "Linkage"
   3. A Policy at War With Itself
   4. Defects in the Classic Conservative Position
C. A Prescription for Progress: How to Find Common Ground on Trade ........................................... 143

   a. An End to "Linkage" ........................................ 145
   b. Making the U.S. More Competitive ........................ 146
      i. Helping Individuals ....................................... 146

D. Fixing Fast Track ........................................... 150

1. Curing Constitutional Defects ................................ 152
2. Permanence .................................................. 153
3. Enhanced Consultations ...................................... 154
4. More Selective Use of Fast Track ......................... 156
5. Congressional Oversight: Targeted Fast Track ........... 158

Chapter 9: Conclusion ........................................... 161

Tables

Table 1: 2002 Fast-Track Votes .................................. 163
Table 2: Votes on Trade Agreements and Trade Measures 1992–2001 .................................................. 164
Table 3: Votes on Fast Track Trade Promotion Authority 1974–2002 .................................................. 166

Appendices

Appendix A: Timetable for Agreements Under the Trade Act of 2002 .................................................. 169
Appendix B: Key Presidential Trade Negotiation Authority Legislation and Bills Since 1934 .................. 173
  The Trade Expansion Act of 1934, Public Law 73-316, 48 Stat. 943 ..................................................... 175
  The Trade Agreement Extension Act of 1948, Public Law 80-792, 62 Stat. 1053 ..................................... 179
  The Trade Agreement Extension Act of 1951, Public Law 82-50, 65 Stat. 72 ...................................... 185
The Trade Agreement Act of 1979, Public Law 96-39, 93 Stat. 144 ................................. 255
The Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988, Public Law 100-418, 102 Stat. 1107 ................................. 263
Appendix C: First Mention of the Concept of Fast Track ........................................ 385

Table of Cases .................................................................................. 389

Index .................................................................................................. 391