CONTENTS

Preface ................................................................................................................. 7

Petr Pithart
The Treaty on a Constitution for Europe:
Perspectives after the IGC. Introductory Remarks............................................. 11

Vladimír Müller
The Treaty on a Constitution for Europe:
Perspectives after the IGC. Introductory Remarks............................................. 15

Rainer Arnold
The European Constitution and the Transformation of National Constitutional Law.................................................. 21

Ingolf Pernice
A Constitution for Europe –
Amendments and Legal Make-up to the Convention’s Draft................................. 33

Lubos Tichy
Fundamental Rights
and Fundamental Freedoms: Short Remarks...................................................... 51

Bruno de Witte
European Treaty Revision: a Case of Multilevel Constitutionalism........................ 59

Jo Shaw
What Happens if the Constitutional Treaty is not Ratified?................................. 77

Stanislaw Biernat
Ratification of the Constitutional Treaty and Procedures for the Case of Veto.................................................................... 97

Zdenek Kühn
Making a European Transnational Constitution:
Some Central European Perspectives.................................................................. 127
Jiří Zemánek
Consent of Parliament or People’s Referendum? .............................................. 141

Dimitris Tsatsos
Constitutional Developments after the Entry into Force of the Constitution For Europe.......................................................... 149

Stefan Griller
The Impact of the Constitution for Europe on National Sovereignty ............. 151

András Sajó
EU Networks under the New Constitution: Impact on Domestic Constitutional Structures................................................................. 183

Ana Martins
Amendment of the Constitution: Procedural and Political Questions ............ 199

Anna Vergés Bausili
Beyond the Early Warning System: The Reform of EU Governance and National Parliaments................................................................. 211

Jean-Victor Louis
Union Membership: Accession, Suspension of Membership Rights and Unilateral Withdrawal. Some Reflections ........................................ 223

Stephan Wernicke
„In the name of the Union citizens!“ – Art 1-1 of the Constitution and the European Court of Justice..................................................... 235

List of Contributors.............................................................................................................. 245