The New Civil Rights Research
A Constitutive Approach

BENJAMIN FLEURY-STEINER
University of Delaware, USA

LAURA BETH NIELSEN
Northwestern University and The American Bar Foundation, USA

ASHGATE
Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Contributors</th>
<th>vii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Preface: On Legal Rights Consciousness: A Challenging Analytical Tradition
Michael McCann

Introduction A Constitutive Perspective of Rights
Benjamin Fleury-Steiner and Laura Beth Nielsen

PART I  RIGHTS IN PRACTICE

1. "That’s Right”: Truth, Justice, and the Legal Consciousness of Educational Activists
   Idit Kostiner

2. Who Manages Feminist-Inspired Reform? An In-Depth Look at Title IX Coordinators
   Judith Taylor

3. Legal Consciousness and Workplace Rights
   Catherine R. Albiston

4. LGBT Family Rights, Legal Consciousness, and the Dilemma of Difference
   Kimberly D. Richman

5. Consciousness in Context: Employees’ Views of Sexual Harassment Grievance Procedures
   Anna-Maria Marshall

PART II  CONTESTED RIGHTS

6. On-the-Job Sexual Harassment: How Labels Enable Men to Discriminate through Sexual Harassment and Exclusion
   Elizabeth A. Hoffmann
PART III THE FUTURE OF RIGHTS RESEARCH

9 When the Saints Go Marching In: Legal Consciousness and Prison Experiences of Conscientious Objectors to Military Service in Israel
Hadar Aviram

10 Time, Legal Consciousness, and Power: The Case of France's 35-Hour Workweek Laws
Jérôme Pélisse

11 The Power of "Place": Public Space and Rights Consciousness
Laura Beth Nielsen

Index