Cicero and the Jurists
From Citizens’ Law to the Lawful State

Jill Harries

Duckworth
Contents

Preface 9

Introduction 11

1. Death of a Pontifex 17

2. Jurists and Jurisprudence 27
   (i) Case study: Manilius and Varro 29
   (ii) Jurists and authority 32
   (iii) Jurisprudence 37
   (iv) Flavius the scriba 39
   (v) The shock of the new: Q. Mucius and the ius civile 41
   (vi) After Scaevola 45
   (vii) The invention of tradition 49
   (viii) ‘Lawyers’ 50

3. Law and the Laws 51
   (i) Defining law I: the ‘higher law’ 53
   (ii) Law and jurisprudence 56
   (iii) Defining law II: ‘public’ and ‘private’ 58
   (iv) The Twelve Tables and the myth of ‘private’ law 63
   (v) Law and religion 66
   (vi) Defining law III: the naming of parts 68
   (vii) Advocates’ law 70

4. The Juristic Tradition 75
   (i) Cicero against Servius, November 63 76
   (ii) Manilius and the hazards of survival 79
   (iii) Reception and distortion 81
   (iv) Digression: Servius, Sabinus and Gellius 85
   (v) Conclusion 90

5. Methods of Argument 92
   (i) On Invention 92
   (ii) Jurist versus advocate: secondary heirs and the causa Curiana 97
Cicero and the Jurists

(iii) Q. Mucius and the discourse of jurisprudence 102
(iv) Jurists, orators and the 'hypothetical case' 105
(v) The rule-book rejected 108
(vi) Scaevola the Augur and the redundancy of oratory 110
(vii) The orator and legal knowledge 111

6. Jurists in Context: Servius and Trebatius 116
   (i) Servius the orator 117
   (ii) Servius the jurist 122
   (iii) Law and rhetoric: the Topica 126
   (iv) Afterword 132

7. Parallels and Precedents 134
   (i) Precedent and flexibility 136
   (ii) 'Decided cases' 138
   (iii) Precedents and plausibility 140
   (iv) Precedent as 'decided case': the woman from Arretium 143
   (v) Precedent as iudicatum: C. Hostilius Mancinus 144
   (vi) Advocacy as precedent 146
   (vii) Citizenship and the higher law 146

8. Priestly Law and the ius publicum 149
   (i) Families and sacra 149
   (ii) Adrogation, the pontiffs and public law 153
   (iii) Pontifical responsum and public law 156
   (iv) Augural law and public law 162

9. The Jurists and Antiquity 170
   (i) The Twelve Tables 171
   (ii) Law and history 175
   (iii) Class struggle and the ius civile 182

10. Law and Community 185
    (i) Ius civile and civitas 185
    (ii) Law and reputation 188
    (iii) Catiline 190
    (iv) Exile and after 193
    (v) Prosecuting Piso 197
    (vi) Law and dignitas 201

11. The Rhetoric of Exclusion 204
    (i) Antonius the outlaw 206
    (ii) September 44: the First Philippic 208
Contents

(iii) Faith and shame 212
(iv) The un-Roman Antonius 216
(v) The war on Antonius 218
(vi) The dignitas of Antonius 221
(vii) Condoning the unlawful 224
(viii) Farewell to arms 228

Conclusion: The Partnership of Life 230

Glossary of Latin and Legal Terms 236
Bibliography of Works Cited 242
Index 249