Youth Justice and Child Protection

Edited by Malcolm Hill, Andrew Lockyer and Fred Stone

Jessica Kingsley Publishers
London and Philadelphia
Contents

Preface 7

Introduction: The Principles and Practice of Compulsory Intervention when Children are 'At Risk' or Engage in Criminal Behaviour 9

Malcolm Hill, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, Andrew Lockyer, University of Glasgow and Fred Stone, Professor Emeritus, University of Glasgow

Part 1: Different Approaches to the Youth Justice–Child Care and Protection Interface 39

1 Approaching Youth Crime through Welfare and Punishment: The Finnish Perspective 41

Johanna Korpinen and Tarja Pösö, University of Tampere, Finland

2 The Interface between Youth Justice and Child Protection in Ireland 61

Helen Buckley and Eoin O'Sullivan, University of Dublin, Trinity College

3 Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice in the USA: A Practice Perspective 75

Mark Creekmore, University of Michigan

4 Juvenile Crime and the Justice System in Sweden 90

Anna Hollander and Michael Tärnfalk, Stockholm University

5 Child Protection and the 'Juvenile Secure Estate' in England and Wales: Controversies, Complexities and Concerns 104

Barry Goldson, University of Liverpool

Part 2: Trends in Child Protection and Youth Justice Policy 121

6 Developments in Child Protection 123

Jim Ennis, Foster Care Associates, Scotland
7. The Relationship between Youth Justice and Child Welfare in England and Wales
   Anthony Bottoms, University of Cambridge, and Vicky Kemp, Legal Services Research Centre, UK

8. Change, Evidence, Challenges: Youth Justice Developments in Scotland
   Bill Whyte, University of Edinburgh

Part 3: Issues in Evaluation

   Sally Kuenssberg, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde Board

10. The Scottish Children's Hearings System: Thinking about Effectiveness
    Lorraine Waterhouse, University of Edinburgh

Part 4: Decision-making and Rights

11. The Place of Lay Participation in Decision-making
    Barbara Reid and Ian Gillan, University of Glasgow

12. Children's Justice: A View from America
    Donald N. Duquette, University of Michigan

13. Children's Rights and Juvenile Justice
    David Archard, University of Lancaster

14. Human Rights and Children's Rights in the Scottish Children's Hearing System
    Kathleen Marshall, Commissioner for Children and Young People, Scotland

15. Conclusions
    Andrew Lockyer, Malcolm Hill and Fred Stone

The Contributors
Subject Index
Author Index