Modernised EC Competition Law in International Arbitration

Phillip Landolt, Ph.D (Cantab.)
Barrister (England & Wales)
Barrister & Solicitor (Ontario, Canada)
Table of Contents

FOREWORD xiii
TABLE OF ABBREVIATIONS xv
TABLE OF EU CASE LAW xix

CHAPTER 1 – INTRODUCTION
1. Competition Law in the EU Legal Order 1
2. Arbitration 2
3. Why this Book? 3
4. Scope of this Book 7
5. A Note on Terminology 9
6. Topography of EC Competition Law 11

CHAPTER 2 – THE OBJECTIVES OF COMPETITION LAW
1. The Hallmarks of Modern Competition Law 19
2. EC Competition Law as a System of Modern Competition Law 22
   A. General 22
   B. The Primarily Public Nature of the Objectives of EC Competition Law 22
   C. The Dual Objectives of EC Competition Law 25

CHAPTER 3 – THE ENFORCEMENT OF COMMUNITY LAW
1. Relations between Community Law and Member State Law 33
   A. General Principles 33
   B. Direct Effect under the EC Treaty 34
   C. The System of Enforcement of Private Rights under Community Law 34
   D. Competition Law Within the Community Legal Order 35
      1. General 35
      2. Direct Applicability of EC Competition Law 36
2. Modernisation 38
   A. Background 38
   B. Modernisation and Arbitration 39

CHAPTER 4 – THE CONTENT OF EC COMPETITION LAW
1. The Relationship between Article 81 EC and Articles 82 EC 43
Modernised EC Competition Law in International Arbitration

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>II. Article 81 EC</th>
<th>44</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. The Text</td>
<td>44</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Analysis under Article 81 EC – General</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Objects and Effects</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. De Minimis Notice</td>
<td>48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Effects</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F. Analysing Effects</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>G. Article 81(3) EC – Efficiencies</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>H. Block Exemptions and Related Notices</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. General</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Two Horizontal Cooperation Block Exemptions</td>
<td>57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The R &amp; D Block Exemption</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. The Specialisation Block Exemption</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. The Horizontal Cooperation Guidelines</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. The Vertical Restraints Block Exemption</td>
<td>66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. The Verticals Guidelines</td>
<td>67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. The Subcontracting Notice</td>
<td>68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. The Technology Transfer Block Exemption</td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. The Technology Transfer Guidelines</td>
<td>72</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>III. Article 82 EC</th>
<th>74</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A. General</td>
<td>74</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Dominance</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Joint Dominance</td>
<td>76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Significance of Occupying a Dominant Position</td>
<td>77</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Abuse of a Dominant Position</td>
<td>77</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| IV. Member State Government-Sponsored Distortions to Competition | 82 |

| V. EC Competition Law and Sectoral Regulation | 85 |

CHAPTER 5 – ARBITRABILITY

| I. Powers of an Arbitral Tribunal to Decide Material Issues | 89 |
| II. Applicable Law | 90 |
| III. Arbitrability under Surveyed States’ Law | 92 |
| IV. Competition Law | 93 |
| A. Features of Competition Law Relevant to the Arbitrability Determination | 93 |
| B. The Arbitrability of Competition Law under Surveyed States’ Law | 94 |
| C. Comparison with Arbitrability of Competition Law under US Federal Law | 95 |
| D. EU Law | 99 |
| 1. Pre-Modernisation | 99 |
| 2. Modernisation | 101 |

CHAPTER 6 – THE APPLICATION OF MANDATORY NORMS

| I. Overview | 105 |
| A. Four Questions | 105 |
| B. The Responses in Brief | 105 |
Table of Contents

1. Antinomy between International Arbitration and Assuring the Application of Mandatory Norms .............................................. 105
2. Duties upon Arbitrators .................................................................................................................. 107
3. Some Conclusions .......................................................................................................................... 108
   a. Arbitrators Will Properly Apply Mandatory Norms in Accordance with their Justified Claims 108
   b. Authority for Applying Mandatory Norms in Arbitrations ......................................................... 109
   c. Proper Role of Party Will in the Application of Mandatory Norms ........................................... 111

II. Mandatory Norms in the Conflicts of Law System ............................................................................ 112
   A. General ......................................................................................................................................... 112
      1. Rules of Mandatory Application ............................................................................................... 112
      2. Applicable Law in the Absences of States’ Interests ................................................................. 113
      3. Choice of Law in the Presence of States’ Interests .................................................................. 113
      4. Types of Mandatory Norms ...................................................................................................... 114
      5. Mandatory Norms and Public Policy ....................................................................................... 115
      6. The Specific Problem of Applying Mandatory Rules in Arbitrations ....................................... 117
   B. The Application of Mandatory Norms by Courts ......................................................................... 118
      1. Norms of the Forum .................................................................................................................... 118
      2. Norms other than those of the Forum .......................................................................................... 118
      3. Competing Application of Two States’ Mandatory Norms ....................................................... 119
      4. The Rome Convention on the Law Applicable to Contractual Matters ................................... 120
         a. Scope of Application .................................................................................................................. 120
         b. Treatment of Mandatory Norms under the Rome Convention ............................................. 120
         c. Foreign Mandatory Norms under the Rome Convention ..................................................... 120
         d. Domestic Mandatory Norms under the Rome Convention ................................................... 123
         e. Rome Convention Treatment of Foreign Mandatory Norms Reflects Widely Accepted Principles 124
         f. Further Authority Supporting Treatment of Mandatory Norms under the Rome Convention Model 127
   C. Differences between Courts and Arbitral Tribunals in Relation to Mandatory Norms .................. 128
   D. Application of Mandatory Norms in Arbitration Practice and Theory ........................................ 129
      1. Arbitration Practice ...................................................................................................................... 129
      2. Legal Literature .......................................................................................................................... 134
   E. Proper Approach to the Application of EC Competition Law by Arbitration Tribunals ................. 139
      1. Enforceable and Unenforceable Duty upon Arbitrators ........................................................... 139
      2. Enforceable Obligations upon Arbitrators .................................................................................. 141
         a. Enforceable Obligations are only ever “Enforceable” on Arbitrators in an Indirect Sense .......... 141
         b. Provisions on Applicable Law in Arbitration Laws ............................................................... 141
c. Is there any Enforceable Obligation under Arbitration Laws to Determine the Applicable Law in a Certain Manner?
d. Unsystematic and Virtually Adventitious Nature of Judicial Jurisdiction to Interfere with Arbitration Awards

3. Enforceable Obligations on Arbitrators and the Application of EC Competition Law
   a. Courts of EU Member States
   b. Courts of States Not Belonging to the EU
   c. Competition Authorities

4. Unenforceable Duty on Arbitrators

5. Applying Mandatory Norms in Arbitration

III. Must Arbitrators Raise Mandatory Norms of their Own Motion?
   A. General
   B. Practical Limits on Arbitrators’ Obligation to Apply Mandatory Norms of their Own Motion

CHAPTER 7 – TAKING EC COMPETITION LAW SERIOUSLY

I. Competition Law as Mandatory Norms
   A. States’ Interests
   B. The Territoriality Principle and Competition Law
      1. Effects on Markets
      2. Development of the Position under US Law

II. The Application of EC Competition Law
   A. Outer Limits of the Application of EC Competition Law
      1. Qualified Effects
      2. Respective Application of EC and Member State Competition Laws
         a. Effect on Trade between the EU Member States
         b. The Effect on Trade Guidelines
         c. Subsidiarity
         d. Proportionality
   B. Complications under EU Law in Discerning which of its Norms are Mandatory
   C. The EU’s Policy on Application of EC Competition Law
   D. Limits to Application of EC Competition Law Inhering within the EU Legal Order Itself
      1. Material Extent of Application of EC Competition Law
      2. Limits due to Procedural Requirements of the Lex Fori
         a. General
         b. Van Schijndel
         c. Peterbroeck
         d. Eco Swiss
         e. Conclusions on these Three Preliminary Reference Decisions of the ECJ
Table of Contents

3. Competition between an EU Law Rule and a Substantive Member State Rule 207

4. The Origin of the EU Norm within the Community Legal Order 209

5. Application of Hard Core Prohibition More Compelling 215

6. Distinction as to Particular Objectives of EC Competition Law 217

7. Distinction in Relation to Effects of EC Competition Law 217

8. Distinction between Horizontal and Vertical Restraints 220

9. The Imperativity of Market Definition under EC Competition Law 220

III. The Imperativity Assessment by Arbitral Tribunals 221

   A. General 221

   B. Limitations Extending from the Arbitration Context 221

   C. Assessment of the Objective Importance of Competition Law 221

   D. Competing Public Policy Claims of Two or More States 227

IV. Are Arbitrators under an Obligation to Apply EC Competition Law of their own Motion? 229

V. The Supplementary Application of the Lex Arbitrii and the Lex Causae 230

CHAPTER 8 – EC COMPETITION LAW ASSISTANCE IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

I. Non-mandatory Statements of EC Competition Law 237

   A. Commission Notices 237

   B. Other Non-Binding Statements from the Commission 237

   C. Treatment of Non-Binding Statements of EC Competition Law by Arbitrators 240

II. Influence on Arbitral Tribunals of other Bodies’ prior Applications of Legal Norms 240

   A. Critical Role of Prior administrative Findings in private Competition Law Proceedings 240

   B. Bases upon which Arbitral Tribunals May Rely on Prior Determinations 241

      1. Distinction between Mandatory Norms and Applications of Mandatory Norms 241

      2. Treatment of Prior Decisions by Arbitrators 242

         a. Res Judicata 242

         b. Values Outside of those Behind Res Judicata 246

         c. Parallel between Foreign Mandatory Norms and Foreign Decisions and Awards 246

      3. Factors Affecting Degree of Arbitration Tribunals’ Reliance on Prior Determinations 247

         a. Rights of Defence 247

         b. Similarity of the Subject Matter of the Two Proceedings 248

         c. Institutional Competence of Prior Decision-Maker 248

         d. The Cogency of the Analysis 249

         e. Nature of the Prior Decision 249
III. Arbitration Tribunals' Treatment of Prior Determinations on EC Competition Law

A. General

B. Authority of EC Competition Law Decisions under Member State Law

C. Authority of EC Competition Law Decisions under Community Law
   1. General
   2. Community Courts
   3. The European Commission
      a. General
      b. Bases for the Authority of Commission Decisions under Community Law
      c. Application to Arbitral Tribunals
      d. Extent of Authority of Commission Decisions under Community Law
   4. Member State Competition Authorities
   5. Member State Courts

D. Considerations Relevant to Arbitrators' Weighting of Prior EC Competition Law Determinations
   1. Rights of the Defence
   2. Similarity of Issues
   3. Institutional Competence of First Decision Maker
   4. The Nature of the Decision

IV. Effect on arbitral Proceedings of Contemporaneous Proceedings before other Bodies

V. Intervention of Commission and Member State Competition Authorities in Arbitration Proceedings

A. The Modernisation Regulation

B. Legal Nature of the Commission's Intervention

C. Basis upon which the Commission May Provide Assistance to Arbitration Tribunals

D. Community Law Limits on Assistance to Arbitral Tribunals

E. Confidentiality Restrictions under Arbitration Law

CHAPTER 9 – OVERVIEW OF SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS IN PRACTICE

I. Gathering Evidence

A. General

B. Sources
   1. Authoritative or Persuasive Determinations from Other Bodies
   2. Assistance from Other Decision Makers
   3. Searches
   4. Production Orders
   5. Compelling of Witnesses
   6. Market Knowledge
   7. Economic Consultants
8. Types of Analysis Frequently Conducted by Economic Consultants
   a. Empirical
   b. Econometrics
9. Accountants

II. Market Power – A Foundational Concept
   A. General
   B. Market Definition
      1. The Uses of Market Definition
      2. The Commission’s Treatment of Market Definition
      3. Other common Tests Used in Relation to Market Definition
   C. Market Share
   D. Drawing Conclusions from Market Shares
   E. Refining Market Power Analysis
   F. Review of Issues Relating to Article 81(3) EC
   G. Dominance
      1. Demonstrating Effects on Competition
      2. Quantifying Damages

CHAPTER 10 – LEGAL RELIEF
   I. Public and Private Enforcement of EC Competition Law
   II. Burden of Proof
   III. Standard of Proof
   IV. Time Barring
   V. Provisional Measures
      A. General
      B. Applicable Law
      C. Where to Apply for Interim Measures
   VI. Severance
      A. General
      B. Severance under Surveyed States’ Law
         1. Generally
         2. Severance under Swiss Law
         3. Severance under English Law
         4. Severance under French Law
         5. Severance under German Law
         6. Severance under Dutch Law
   VII. Damages
      A. General
      B. Components of Damages Claims
         1. General
         2. Violation of EC Competition Law
         3. Causation
         4. Damages
5. Swiss Law 346
6. English Law 346
7. French Law 347
8. German Law 348
9. Dutch Law 349

VIII. Restitution 350
   A. General 350
   B. Swiss Law 350
   C. English Law 351
   D. French Law 352
   E. German Law 352
   F. Dutch Law 352

BIBLIOGRAPHY 353
INDEX 363