Equity and Trusts in Malaysia

Wan Azlan Ahmad
LLB (Hons), MSc, CLP

Paul Linus Andrews
LLB (Hons), LLM, CLP
Contents

Preface ................................................................. vii
About the Authors .................................................. ix
Table of Cases ....................................................... xvii
Table of Statutes ..................................................... xxxvii

PART A
Trusts

Chapter I
Introduction to Trusts and Equity ................................. 3
Trusts ...................................................................... 3
   Nature of trust ...................................................... 3
   Classifications of trusts ......................................... 7
   Trust in contrast to other legal relationships ................. 9
Trusts and perpetuity period ...................................... 15
Equity .................................................................... 15
   Meaning of equity ................................................ 15
   Application of equitable principles in Malaysia .......... 16
   Equitable maxims .................................................. 17
Protective trust ....................................................... 17

Chapter II
Express Private Trusts ................................................ 21
Creation of express trusts ........................................... 21
Formalities ............................................................ 21
   The requirement of certainty for express private trust .... 22

Chapter III
Constitution of Express Trusts .................................... 41
Trust must be properly constituted ................................. 41
Transfer of property ................................................ 41
   Owner's declaration as trustee ................................. 41
   Transfer of property to trustee ................................. 42
Exceptions to the rule that equity will not assist a volunteer 47
   Rule in Strong v Bird ............................................. 47
Contents

Proprietary estoppel ................................................................. 50
Donatio mortis causa ............................................................... 53
Benevolent construction ............................................................ 55

Chapter IV
Constructive Trusts ................................................................. 57

The nature of constructive trusts ............................................ 57
Circumstances of constructive trusteeship ............................. 60
  Fiduciary relationship .............................................................. 60
  Strangers as constructive trustees – accessory and recipient liability .................................................................................. 64
  Agreements to create secret trusts ......................................... 78
  Mutual wills ............................................................................. 79

Other instances of constructive trusts .................................. 80
  Vendors of land ....................................................................... 80
  Acquisition of property by killing ........................................ 81

Chapter V
Resulting Trusts ........................................................................ 83

Circumstances of resulting trusts .......................................... 83
Resulting trust on account of contributions to property .......... 84
  A purchases property using his own funds but putting it in the name of B ............................................................................ 85
  Voluntary transfer ................................................................... 85
  A and B participate in a purchase, the funds or part of them being provided by A but title in the name of B .................. 86
Rebutting resulting trusts ......................................................... 86
  Inconsistent evidence ............................................................... 87
  Presumption of advancement ................................................. 88
Proof of illegality to rebut presumptions ................................. 92
Resulting trust on account of failure to exhaust beneficial interests 96
  Surplus funds ........................................................................ 96
  Surplus funds on dissolution of unincorporated associations .... 98

Chapter VI
Charitable Trusts ...................................................................... 103

Introduction .............................................................................. 103
Benefits of charitable trusts ..................................................... 104
  Validity ................................................................................... 104
  Fiscal advantages .................................................................... 104
  Enforcement ........................................................................... 105
The element of public benefit .................................................. 106
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Contents</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Public policy considerations</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exclusively charitable</td>
<td>108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The heads of charity</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The relief of poverty</td>
<td>110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The advancement of education</td>
<td>114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The advancement of religion</td>
<td>123</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other purposes beneficial to the community</td>
<td>126</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Failure of charitable trust and cy-pres</td>
<td>133</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Impossibility or impracticalality</td>
<td>134</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter VII
Non-Charitable Purpose Trusts........................................... 139

Position of non-charitable purpose trusts.............................. 139
Exceptions to non-validity of non-charitable purpose trusts.......... 141
  Maintenance of specific animals                                  142
  Tombs and monuments                                               143
  Other purposes                                                    143
  Holding of property by unincorporated associations.................. 144

Chapter VIII
Jual Janji, Estoppel and Assignment...................................... 151

Jual janji............................................................................. 151
Equitable estoppel.................................................................. 156
  Promissory estoppel                                            156
  Proprietary estoppel                                           160
  Estoppel by convention                                         161
Assignments of choses in action........................................... 162
  Assignment under the Civil Law Act 1956                        163
  Equitable assignment                                           165

Chapter IX
Secret Trusts........................................................................ 171

Fully secret trusts.................................................................. 172
  Essentials of a valid secret trust                             172
  Uncertainty in terms of trust                                 174
  Standard of proof                                              174
Half secret trusts................................................................... 175
  Communication to the trustee before or at the time of the      175 execution of the will                                       175
  Communication to the trustee after the execution of the will... 175
PART B
Trusteeship

Chapter X
Appointment, Retirement, Removal of Trustees and Fiduciary

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Nature of Trusteeship</th>
<th>181</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Appointment of trustees</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Initial trustees</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Subsequent appointments</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Retirement of trustees</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Express provision</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statutory provisions</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Consent of all beneficiaries</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Court order</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Removal of trustees</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Express provision</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statutory powers</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Court’s inherent power</td>
<td>187</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Death</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disclaimer</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number of trustees</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vesting of trust property</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vesting orders</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Evidence as to vacancy in a trust</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fiduciary nature of trusteeship</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Remuneration</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Secret profits</td>
<td>197</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter XI
Duties and Powers of Trustees

| Generally | 203 |
| Trust instrument and Trustee Act 1949 | 204 |
| Duty to invest | 204 |
| Investment powers | 207 |
| Powers supplementary to powers of investment | 212 |
| Enlargement of powers of investment | 213 |
| Duty to convert | 214 |
| Duty to apportion | 215 |
| Duty to distribute | 216 |
| Protection by way of advertisement | 216 |
| Duty to provide accounts and information | 217 |
| Delegation by trustees: Employment of agent | 222 |
| Maintenance | 228 |
Chapter XII
Specific Performance

Nature of specific performance

When is specific performance available

Performance of an act

No standard to ascertain actual damage

Pecuniary compensation not adequate relief

Pecuniary compensation cannot be obtained

Specific performance where subject has partially ceased to exist

Specific performance of a part of contract

Proceedings against the government

Power to award compensation

Contracts not specifically enforceable

Discretionary remedy

The exercise of the discretion

For whom enforcement cannot be made

Contracts of sale by one with no title or by a voluntary settlor

Against whom contracts cannot be specifically enforced

Effect of dismissal of suit for specific performance

Chapter XIII
Injunctions

Nature of injunctions

Overview of types of injunctions

Perpetual injunctions

Mandatory and prohibitory injunctions

Interlocutory (or interim) injunctions

The law prior to American Cyanamid

The law expounded in American Cyanamid

Identification of right

Interim mandatory injunction

When injunctions cannot be granted

Injunction to perform negative agreement
Erinford type injunction .............................................................. 297
Quia timet injunction ................................................................. 297
Mareva injunction ..................................................................... 299
Guidelines for the grant of Mareva orders ............................. 300

Chapter XIV
Anton Piller Orders, Rectification and Rescission ................. 307

Anton Piller orders .................................................................... 307
  Conditions for grant ................................................................ 308
  Anton Piller and privilege from self-incrimination .................. 310
Rectification ............................................................................. 310
  When instruments may be rectified ......................................... 312
  Specific enforcement of rectified contract ............................... 314
Rescission ................................................................................. 315
  When rescission may be adjudged .......................................... 315
  Rescission for mistake ............................................................ 316
  Alternative prayer for rescission in suit for specific performance 316
  Cancellation of written instruments ....................................... 316
  What instruments may be partially cancelled ......................... 317
Appointment of receivers ......................................................... 318

Chapter XV
Breach of Trust and Compensation in Equity ....................... 319

General ..................................................................................... 319
Equitable compensation ............................................................. 319
  Breach of duty causing direct damage or loss to trust property 321
  Unconscionable infidelity or disloyalty .................................... 321
  Loss attributable to failure to exercise appropriate skill and care 322
  Non-disclosure of material fact .............................................. 326
  Contributory negligence ....................................................... 329
Measure of damages in particular instances ............................ 330
Account of profit ....................................................................... 331
Defences for breach of trust ....................................................... 333
  Exclusion clauses ................................................................. 333
  Acquiescence or consent by beneficiaries ................................. 335
  Impounding of the beneficiary's interest ................................. 336
  Statutory power to relieve trustee ........................................... 336
Proprietary remedies: Tracing in equity .................................... 337
  Fiduciary relationship .......................................................... 338
  Unmixed funds .................................................................... 339
  Mixed funds ......................................................................... 340
Claim in personam ..................................................................... 348

Index .......................................................................................... 351