CALLING FOR CHANGE:
WOMEN, LAW, AND THE LEGAL PROFESSION

ELIZABETH SHEEHY
AND
SHEILA McINTYRE
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................ix

Chapter 1
Sheila McIntyre and Elizabeth Sheehy
Introduction .................................................................................................................. 1

Part I
Engaging Women's Equality: The Changing Context in Canada

Chapter 2
Nathalie Des Rosiers
« Égalité, diversité et imputabilité » dans une société néo-libérale:
la multiplicité des angles .............................................................................................. 25

Chapter 3
Lee Lakeman
Feminist Alliances in the Face of the Law .................................................................. 33

Chapter 4
Jane Bailey
Legal Workplace Technology and Equality for Women Lawyers:
Fortifying or Transforming the “Master’s House”? ..................................................... 53

Chapter 5
Mary Eberts
Women in Law: Retreat and Renewal ......................................................................... 83
Part II
Educating for Change

Chapter 6
Emily Carasco
Reflections on Employment Equity (the Hiring Component) and Law Schools in Ontario ................................................................. 97

Chapter 7
Camille A. Nelson
The Conflicting and Contradictory Dance: The Essential Management of Identity for Women of Colour in the Legal Academy .................. 117

Chapter 8
Leighann Burns and Zara Suleman
Justicia in Your Face: How to Survive Law as an Anti-Colonial, Anti-Racist, Feminist Activist ................................................................. 141

Chapter 9
Sanda Rodgers
Educating for Equality: The Meaning of Feminist Administration for Legal Education in Canada ................................................................. 149

Chapter 10
Hilary Sommerlad
“Becoming” a Lawyer: Gender and the Processes of Professional Identity Formation .................................................................................. 159

Chapter 11
Mary Jane Mossman
Legal Education as a Strategy for Change in the Legal Profession .......... 179

Part III
Practising Change

Chapter 12
Fiona M. Kay, Cristi Masuch, and Paula Curry
Growing Diversity and Emergent Change: Gender and Ethnicity in the Legal Profession .................................................................................. 203
Chapter 13
Joan Brockman
An Update on Gender and Diversity in the Legal Profession in Alberta, 1991–2003 ............................................................... 237

Chapter 14
Sharon McIvor
Aboriginal Women: Working in Coalition to Advance Sex Equality ..... 253

Chapter 15
Jane Doe
Barriers Between Feminist Clients and Feminist Lawyers: or, What Class Are You In? ................................................................. 263

Chapter 16
Beth Symes
From LitigatoTo Litigant and Back Again: Equality in Practice........... 267

Chapter 17
Rosemary Hunter
The High Price of Success: The Backlash Against Women Judges in Australia ........................................................................... 281

Part IV
Governing Change

Chapter 18
Josée Bouchard
Les femmes dans la profession juridique : Le rôle des barreaux .......... 305

Chapter 19
Melina Buckley
The Second Decade: The Role of the Canadian Bar Association in Implementing the Touchstones Report ........................................ 325

Chapter 20
Joan Bercovitch
Reflections on the Post-Touchstones Decade ..................................... 339
Chapter 21
Rose Voyvodic
Reimagining Legal Ethics After Touchstones for Change .............................................. 345

Part V
Regrouping for Change

Chapter 22
Diana Majury
Looking Back/Looking Forward: Reflections on a Heterodox Legal Career ................................................................. 367

Chapter 23
Sheila McIntyre
Coalition Politics: Equality in Struggle ........................................................................ 377

Chapter 24
Kim Pate
Looking in the Mirror: Women, Lawyers, and Prisoners .................................................. 393

Chapter 25
Michèle L. Caron
Quand Law devient la loi .................................................................................................. 405

Journals Referenced ........................................................................................................ 415