The Asylum Process and the Rule of Law

International Association of Refugee Law Judges
Netherlands
CONTENTS

Preface vii

I. Introductory Remarks 1

Programme 1

Mrs Barbro Holmberg, Minister for Migration and Asylum Policy, Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Sweden 5

President’s Report, Allan Mackey 8

II. Judicial or Administrative Protection: Legal Systems within the Asylum Process 21

The Interpretation of the Refugee Convention: Idiosyncrasy v Uniformity, Rt Hon Lord Justice John Dyson 21

Judicial or Administrative Protection – Legal Systems within the Asylum Processes, Erika Feiler 37

The Impact of the Minimum Standards Directive 2004/83/EC on National Case Law, Nicholas Blake QC 46

Judicial or Administrative Protection of Asylum-seekers – Content or Form?, Rodger Haines QC 59

Towards Convergence in the Interpretation of the Refugees Convention — A Proposal for the Establishment of an International Refugee Court, Justice A M North and Joyce Chiara 72

Refugee and Asylum Protection in the Americas: Emerging Trends and Evolving Best Practices, Lori Scialabba 137

The Balance between Administrative and Judicial Approaches in the French context, Vera Zederman 149
III. The Question of Proof: Evidence, Credibility and Public Perception 153

Asylum Determination and Evidentiary Uncertainty: Perceptions and Prescriptions, Brian Gorlick 153

IV. Humanitarian Law, Human Rights and Refugee Law 173

Human Rights, Humanitarian Law and Refugee Law, Prof. Göran Melander 207

Refugee Law, Gender, and the Human Rights Paradigm, Deborah Anker 216

V. Reports From IARLJ Chapters 243

Americas Chapter of the IARLJ 243
Australasian Report 246
European Chapter 248

VI. IARLJ Working Party Reports 250

IARLJ Inter-Conference Working Party Process 250
Co-ordinator’s Report, James C. Simeon 250
Report from Expert Evidence Working Party, Geoffrey Care (and paper by John Barnes) 261
Report of the IPA/IRA/IFA Working Party: “All Over the Place: Four Years after the Experts’ Roundtable”, Kim Rosser 358
Report from Working Party on Non-state agents, Roland Bruin 389
“Vulnerable Categories and Subsidiary Protection: Recent Developments”, Edward R. Grant 427

VII. List and Contact Details of Participants 461