PEOPII RESEARCH GROUP
Marco BONA, Philip MEAD and Siewert LINDENBERGH (editors)

PERSONAL INJURY COMPENSATION IN EUROPE:
FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS

A Comparative Study of and Guide to:
Compensation in fatal accident cases
Redress protection of secondary victims
Bystanders and third parties
Limitation law in fatal accident cases
Compensation under the European Court of Human Rights
Applicable law and jurisdiction
Harmonisation

With contributions by

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Marco BONA</th>
<th>Philip MEAD</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Sara Burns</td>
<td>Maria Medina Alcoz</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Michel Cannarsa</td>
<td>Mariano Medina Crespo</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alida Coates</td>
<td>Ioannis Natsinas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philomena Creffield</td>
<td>Stephen Nye</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Antonio Da Costa Basto</td>
<td>John Price</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Evelien de Kezel</td>
<td>Volker Pribnow</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philip Edwards</td>
<td>Tina Reissmann</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clive Garner</td>
<td>Wolfgang Resch</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ivo Greiter</td>
<td>Marie-Louise Rørboi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Martin Hablützel</td>
<td>Felix Rüegg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rintala Hannu</td>
<td>Henrik Sandell</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tessa Herman</td>
<td>Herbert Schober</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Arsène Kronshagen</td>
<td>Tom Sorum</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Paul Kuhn</td>
<td>John E. Sweetman</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Siewert Lindenbergh</td>
<td>Robert Verburg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Angus Logan</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

xpl publishing
SECTION ONE NATIONAL REPORTS

PERSONAL INJURY COMPENSATION IN EUROPE:
FATAL ACCIDENT CLAIMS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS –
INTRODUCTION TO THE NATIONAL REPORTS 3
Philip Mead

QUESTIONNAIRE 8

1. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
COMPENSATION IN AUSTRIA 17
Ivo Greiter

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
1.1. Introduction: the jure successoris action. 1.2. Fatal accidents:
recoverable losses. 1.2.1. Loss of life. 1.2.2. Pecuniary damages.
1.2.3. Non-pecuniary damages. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection.
2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.3.1. Costs arising from the accident. 2.1.3.2. Compensation of loss. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4.1. General principles and categories of recoverable losses. 2.1.4.2. Quantification.
2.1.4.3. Factors to be taken into consideration for quantification purposes. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person.
3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health. 3.1. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation. 3.2. Recoverable losses.
4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits.
4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships.

2. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
   COMPENSATION IN BELGIUM
   Evelien de Kezel

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
   1.1. Introduction: the cause of action actio iure successionis.
   1.1.1. Transferability of a legal claim in the case of death.
   1.2.1.2. Pecuniary losses. 1.2.1.3. Non-pecuniary losses.
   1.2.1.4. Quantum of non-pecuniary damages. 1.2.1.5. Aim of the law of damages. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims.
   2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.1.1. Pretium affectionis. 2.1.1.2. Funeral expenses. 2.1.1.3. Loss of support. 2.1.1.4. The right of secondary victims to claim compensation. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.3.1. Loss of dependency. 2.1.3.2. Loss of support. 2.1.3.3. Deduction of the personal living costs of the deceased. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person.
3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health. 3.1. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation. 3.1.1. Loss of affection. 3.1.2. Mental damage which does not result in a recognised psychiatric illness. 3.2. Recoverable losses. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. Fatal Accidents and Secondary Victims Compensation in Denmark</td>
<td>Marie-Louise Rørbol and Tina Reissmann</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained</td>
<td>1.1. Introduction: the action iure successionis. 1.2. Fatal accidents:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>by the deceased by means of the law of succession. 1.3. Death of the</td>
<td>recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4.</td>
<td>actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate.</td>
<td>2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>death, injury, risk to life or to health. 4. Secondary victims,</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>economic relationships.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wales</td>
<td>Burns and Stephen Nye</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained</td>
<td>1.1. Introduction: the action iure successionis. 1.2. Fatal accidents:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>by the deceased by means of the law of succession. 1.2.1. General</td>
<td>recoverable losses. 1.2.1. General damages for pain, suffering and</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>damages for pain, suffering and loss of amenity (PSLA). 1.2.2.</td>
<td>1.2.2. Personal care support. 1.2.3. Loss of earnings. 1.2.4.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>personal care support. 1.2.3. Loss of earnings. 1.2.4. Further</td>
<td>expenses incurred during lifetime. 1.2.5. Deterrence, punitive and</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>expenses incurred during lifetime. 1.2.5. Deterrence, punitive and</td>
<td>exemplary damages. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>exemplary damages. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other</td>
<td>other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by the</td>
<td>the estate. 1.5. Proposals for law reform. 2. Protection of</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>estate. 1.5. Proposals for law reform. 2. Protection of secondary</td>
<td>secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>victims. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled</td>
<td>family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses</td>
<td>General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>in fatal accident claims. 2.1.3. Loss of pecuniary benefit. 2.1.3.2.</td>
<td>compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Loss of pecuniary benefit. 2.1.3.2. Loss of support.</td>
<td>fatal accident claims. 2.1.3.1. Loss of pecuniary benefit. 2.1.3.2.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Loss of support.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2.1.3.3. Loss of future support. 2.1.3.4. Future expenses.
2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

5. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN FINLAND

Rintala Hannu

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of damages.
   1.1. Introduction. 1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses of the primary victim. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits. 2. Protection of secondary victims. 2.1. Protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation for pecuniary losses. 2.1.2. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 2.4. Proposals for law reform. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation. 4. Social security benefits, collateral benefits and private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

6. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN FRANCE

Michel Cannarsa

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession. 1.1. Introduction: the action jure sucessionis. 1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health. 3.1. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation. 3.2. Recoverable losses. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

7. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN GERMANY

Paul Kuhn

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession. 1.1. Introduction: the action inre successionis. 1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses. 1.2.1. Loss of life. 1.2.2. Losses (pecuniary and non-pecuniary) suffered by the victim between the accident and death. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.2.1. Shock. 2.1.2.2. Loss of dependency. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.3.1. Death of the sole earner. 2.1.3.2. Death of the sole person keeping the household. 2.1.3.3. Two-wage-earner family. 2.1.3.4. Dependency arising from the death of a child or other relative. 2.1.3.5. Funeral and burial expenses. 2.1.3.6. Loss of social status. 2.1.3.7. Limits of maximum liability. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4.1. Categories of recoverable losses. 2.1.4.2. Quantification. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health. 3.1. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation. 3.2. Recoverable losses. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. State social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments.
5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 5.1. Primary victim is an employee. 5.2.1. Primary victim is a partner of a firm/company. 5.2.2. The surviving partner(s) are part of the family of the primary victims. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

8. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN GREECE

Ioannis Natsinas

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
   1.1. Introduction: the action jure successionis. 1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims.
   2.1 Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health.
4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. State social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

9. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN THE REPUBLIC OF IRELAND

John E. Sweetman

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
   1.1. Introduction: the jure successionis action. 1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims.
   2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.1.1. Causation, proximity, remoteness. 2.1.1.2. Summary of causation. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases.
2.1.3. Pecuniary damages. 2.1.3.1. Section 49(2): funeral and other expenses. 2.1.3.2. Loss of pecuniary benefits.
2.1.3.3. Summary of pecuniary damages. 2.1.4. Recoverable non-pecuniary loss and quantum. 2.2. Death of a foetus.
2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 2.3.1. Pecuniary loss.
2.3.2. Summary: pecuniary loss of secondary victims.
2.3.3. Consortium. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim’s death, injury, risk to life or to health.
3.1. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation and recoverable losses. 3.2. Proposals for law reform. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits.
4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits.
4.2.1. Section 50 of the Civil Liability Act 1961: fatal injury cases.
4.2.2. Section 50 of the Civil Liability Act 1961: non-fatal injuries. 4.2.3. Collateral benefits received from outside the jurisdiction. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 5.1. Where the primary victim is an employee or employer. 5.2. Where the primary victim is a partner of a firm/company and the surviving partners are also part of the family of the primary victim. 5.3. Where the surviving partners have no family relationship with the primary victim.

10. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN ITALY

Marco Bona

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of damages sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
1.1. Introduction: the iure successionis action. 1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses. 1.2.1. Losses suffered by the victim between the accident and death. 1.2.2. Loss of life: recoverable or not recoverable? 1.2.3. Summary. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant’s conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs. 1.5. Proposals for law reform. 2. Protection of secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses recoverable in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Recoverable non-pecuniary losses and quantum. 2.1.4.1. Categories of recoverable non-pecuniary loss. 2.1.4.2. Quantification of non-pecuniary loss. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 2.3.1. The right to claim compensation: the protection of family serenity. 2.3.2. Requirements. 2.3.3. Pecuniary losses. 2.3.4. Non-pecuniary losses: heads of damage and their assessment. 2.4. Proposals for law reform. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim’s death, injury, risk of life or to health. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

11. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS COMPENSATION IN THE GRAND-DUCHY OF LUXEMBOURG

Arsène Kronshagen

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession. 1.1. Introduction: actions under the law of inheritance. 1.2. Fatal accidents: compensatable losses. 1.2.1. Loss of life. 1.2.2. Pecuniary and non-pecuniary losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant’s conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs. 2. Compensation of secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: compensation of members of the family and next of kin. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. The particular case of a child conceived but not yet born who has suffered the loss of the parent. 2.1.4. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary loss. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. The compensation of persons involved in a voluntary capacity. 4. Effect of social security and private insurance. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.
12. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
COMPENSATION IN THE NETHERLANDS

Robert Verburg

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
   1.1. Introduction: the action iure successionis.
   1.1.1. General. 1.1.2. Heirs. 1.1.3. The action iure successionis.
   1.2.2. Loss of life. 1.2.3. Losses (pecuniary and non-pecuniary) suffered by the victim between the accident and death.
   1.2.4. Punitive features. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate.
2. Protection of secondary victims.
   2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles.
   2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.2.1. Spouses or registered partners. 2.1.2.2. Children. 2.1.2.3. Persons other than children or spouses. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims.
   2.1.4.1. Categories of recoverable losses. 2.1.4.2. Quantification. 2.1.4.3. Factors to be taken into consideration for quantification purposes.
2.2. Death of a foetus.
2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person.
2.4. Proposals for law reform.
3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health.
   3.1. Bystanders and rescuers: right to compensation.
3.2. Recoverable losses.
4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits.
   4.1. Social security benefits.
   4.2. Collateral benefits.
   4.3. Private insurance payments.
5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships.

13. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
COMPENSATION IN NORWAY

Tom Sørøm

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
   1.1. Introduction: the action iure successionis.
   1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct.
   1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims.
2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.2. Death of a foetus. 2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, risk to life or to health.
4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits.
4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships.

14. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
COMPENSATION IN PORTUGAL

Antonio Da Costa Basto

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses suffered by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
1.1. Introduction: the iure successionis action. 1.2. Fatal accidents:
recoverable losses. 1.2.1. Loss of the right to life. 1.2.2. Losses suffered by the primary victim between the date of the accident and death. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Limitation periods for actions brought by the heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims. 2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of dependants and close relationships of love and affection.
2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims with a right to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4.1. Recoverable losses.
2.1.4.2. Quantification. 2.1.4.3. Factors to be taken into consideration for quantification purposes. 2.2. Death of a foetus.
2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Witnesses and rescuers.
4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security. 4.2. Collateral benefits.
4.3. Payments from private insurance policies. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Author(s)</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr> </thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>15.</td>
<td>FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS</td>
<td>Angus Logan</td>
<td>335</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>COMPENSATION IN SCOTLAND</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>by the deceased by means of the law of succession.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.1. Introduction: the jure successionis action.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs and the estate.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2. Protection of secondary victims.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>close relationships of love and affection.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.1. General principles.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>accident cases and recoverable losses.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2. Death of a foetus.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>injured or disabled person.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3. Bystanders and rescuers: witnessing the primary victim's death,</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>injury, risk to life or to health.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2. Collateral benefits.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3. Private insurance payments.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16.</td>
<td>FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS</td>
<td>Mariano Medina Crespo and Maria Medina Alcoz</td>
<td>347</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>COMPENSATION IN SPAIN</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1. Death of the primary victim: securing compensation through the</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>law of inheritance for losses suffered by the deceased.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.1. Introduction: the action jure successionis.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2. Fatal accidents: recoverable losses.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3. Death of the primary victim due to causes unconnected with the</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>conduct of the defendant.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4. Limitation periods for actions brought by the heirs and in</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>criminal cases.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5. Proposed reforms.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2. Protection of secondary victims.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of members of the</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>family and other persons with close relationships.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.1. General principles.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>accident cases.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.4.1. Categories of compensatable losses.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1.4.2. Quantification.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2. Death of a foetus.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3. Injury suffered by the primary victim: living with an injured</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>or disabled person.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4. Proposed reforms.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3. On-lookers and rescuers: witnessing a</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
death, injury or risk to life or health of the primary victim.
3.1. On-lookers and rescuers: the right to compensation.
3.2. Compensatable injuries. 3.3. Proposed reforms. 4. Secondary victims, social security and other collateral benefits. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships. 6. Secondary victims and limitation periods.

17. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
COMPENSATION IN SWEDEN
Henrik Sandell

1. Death of the primary victim: recoverability of losses sustained by the deceased by means of the law of succession.
1.1. Introduction: the action jure successionis. 1.2. Fatal accidents:
recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions by heirs or the estate. 2. Protection of secondary victims.
2.1. Death of the primary victim: protection of family members and close relationships of love and affection. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Secondary victims entitled to claim compensation in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.3.1. Loss of support (dependency).
2.1.3.2. Funeral and burial expenses. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4.1. Categories of recoverable loss.
2.1.4.2. Quantification. 2.1.4.3. Factors to be taken into consideration when assessing loss. 2.2. Death of a foetus.
2.3. Non-fatal injury sustained by the primary victim: living with an injured or disabled person. 3. Bystanders and rescuers:
witnessing the primary victim's death, injury, or a risk to life or to health. 4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits. 4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments. 5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships.

18. FATAL ACCIDENTS AND SECONDARY VICTIMS
COMPENSATION IN SWITZERLAND
Martin Habliitzel, Volker Pribnow, Felix Rüegg and Herbert Schober

1. The law of succession. 1.1. Introduction. 1.2. Fatal accidents:
recoverable losses. 1.3. Death of the primary victim from causes other than the defendant's conduct. 1.4. Time limits.
2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Indirect (secondary) victims as claimants in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3. Pecuniary losses in fatal accident claims. 2.1.4. Compensation for non-pecuniary losses.
2.2. Death of a foetus.
2.3. Relatives living with a severely injured person or invalid.

3. Bystanders and rescuers.

3.1. Right to compensation.
3.2. Recoverable losses.

4. Secondary victims, social security benefits and other collateral benefits.

4.1. Social security benefits. 4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments.

5. Death of or injury to the primary victim: protection of economic relationships.

SECTION TWO
COMPARATIVE OVERVIEW, EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS, APPLICABLE LAW and PROSPECTS FOR HARMONISATION

1. THE PROTECTION OF SECONDARY VICTIMS: A COMPARATIVE OVERVIEW

Siewert Lindenbergh

General introduction. 1. Succession of the deceased’s claim. 1.1. Introduction: the action inure successionis. 1.2. Recoverable losses which survive the death of the primary victim.

1.2.1. Introduction. 1.2.2. Loss of life per se. 1.2.3. Pecuniary loss suffered prior to death. 1.2.4. Non-pecuniary loss suffered prior to death. 1.3. Death by causes other than the defendant’s conduct. 1.4. Time limits for actions inure successionis.

2. Protection of secondary victims.

2.1. Death of the primary victim. 2.1.1. General principles. 2.1.2. Dependency, and the right of secondary victims to claim for loss of support in fatal accident cases. 2.1.2.1. Spouses. 2.1.2.2. Unmarried partners. 2.1.2.3. Same-sex partners. 2.1.2.4. Children. 2.1.2.5. Brothers and sisters. 2.1.2.6. Parents and grandparents. 2.1.3. Other pecuniary losses in fatal accident cases. 2.1.3.1. Provision of care rendered gratuitously. 2.1.3.2. Funeral costs. 2.1.4. Non-pecuniary loss in fatal accident cases. 2.2. Death of a foetus.

2.3. Secondary victims in cases of non-fatal injury to the primary victim.

2.3.1. General principles. 2.3.2. Pecuniary loss, and claims for care, time and effort. 2.3.3. Emotional impact of injury on secondary victims.

3. Bystanders and rescuers.

4.2. Collateral benefits. 4.3. Private insurance payments.

2. TRANSNATIONAL ACCIDENTS, FATALITIES AND SECONDARY VICTIMS: JURISDICTION AND APPLICABLE LAW
Philip Mead
1. Introduction. 2. Jurisdiction. 2.1. Transnational road traffic accidents. 2.2. Foreign employment. 3. Proper law of the tort. 4. Potential scope for harmonisation.

3. WHAT PRICE A HUMAN LIFE? – THE APPLICABILITY OF HUMAN RIGHTS TO FATAL ACCIDENT CLAIMS
Philomena Creffield
1. Introduction. 2. English law. 3. Human rights and English law.

4. PROTECTION OF SECONDARY VICTIMS IN THE 'EUROPEAN LABORATORY' OF THE STRASBOURG COURT AND PROSPECTS FOR HARMONISATION
Marco Bona
1. Introduction: divergences and harmonisation. 2. The protection of secondary victims in the 'laboratory' of the European Court of Human Rights. 2.1. The applicable ECHR rights. 2.2. The ECHR compensation system in fatal accident cases. 2.2.1. The goal of compensation: 'just satisfaction' as discretionary compensation. 2.2.2. Action iure successionis and action iure proprio: an unclear distinction under ECHR case law. 2.2.3. Recoverable losses: the distinction between pecuniary damage and non-pecuniary damage. 2.2.4. Pecuniary damages. 2.2.4.1. Pecuniary damages recoverable iure successionis. 2.2.4.2. Pecuniary damages recoverable iure proprio. 2.2.4.3. Non-pecuniary damages recoverable iure successionis by the heirs: loss of life. 2.2.4.4. Non-pecuniary damages recoverable iure proprio by secondary victims. 2.2.4.5. Non-fatal accident injuries. 2.2.4.6. Punitive, exemplary and aggravated damages. 2.2.4.7. Overlap between national compensation and ECHR awards. 2.2.4.8. Taxation and attachments: the principle of intangibility of non-pecuniary damages. 2.3. ECHR redress principles: a compensation system still under construction. 2.4. The Strasbourg redress system as a model for Europe? 3. Towards the development of common principles in fatal accident cases and the compensation of secondary victims: Council of Europe Resolution no. 7-75 and ECHR case law as a starting point for harmonisation. 3.1. Fatal accidents: secondary victims' right to claim compensation for pecuniary losses. 3.2. Fatal accidents: secondary victims' right to claim compensation for non-pecuniary losses as a matter of policy. 3.2.1. The category of secondary victims entitled to claim compensation: a minimum basis for harmonisation. 3.2.2. The foundation of secondary victims' redress protection: a question of policy. 3.2.3. Non-pecuniary losses: the substantive content of this head of loss. 3.2.4. The assessment of secondary victims' non-pecuniary damages: searching for the key principles. 3.3. Non-fatal injuries to the primary victim: secondary victims' right to claim compensation for non-pecuniary losses. 3.4. Action _jure successionis_: is there any common ground? 3.5. Punitive, exemplary and aggravated damages: no space yet for harmonisation. 4. Final remarks.

APPENDIX

COMpendium of ECHR case law on fatal accidents compensation

523