CONTENTS

Preface v
Acknowledgments xi
Table of Cases xvii
Table of Statutes cxxxv
Table of Statutory Instruments clix

PART I: COURTS, PERSONNEL AND SOURCES OF LAW

1. INTRODUCTION 3
   A. The English Legal System 3
   B. Some Basic Concepts 5
   C. The Basic Institutions of the English Legal System 20
   D. Law Reform 33
   E. The Role of the Judiciary in Court Administration 41
   F. Information about the Legal System 44
   G. International Standards 45

2. COURTS AND TRIBUNALS 47
   A. Introduction 48
   B. Courts 48
   C. Tribunals 52
   D. The System in Outline 62
   E. Particular Courts and Tribunals 70

3. LAWYERS 139
   A. Introduction: the “Legal Profession” 139
   B. The Legal Profession Today 144

4. JUDGES 205
   A. Magistrates 206
   B. Tribunal Chairmen and Members 230
   C. The Circuit Bench 236
   D. Judges of the Superior Courts 246

5. LEGISLATION 290
   A. Introduction 291
6. Statutory Interpretation 402
   A. Introduction 403
   B. General Approaches to Statutory Interpretation 407
   C. The Context: Internal Aids to Interpretation 427
   D. The Context: Rules of Language 432
   E. The Context: External Aids to Interpretation 434
   F. Presumptions 455
   G. Reform 464
   H. The Interpretation of Community Legislation 465

7. Judicial Precedent 474
   A. Introduction 474
   B. Proposition of “law” 476
   C. Determining the Ratio Decidendi 477
   D. The Hierarchy of the Courts and the Rules of Binding Precedent 483
   E. Persuasive Authorities 512
   F. Distinguishing 515
   G. Precedent and Statutory Interpretation 516
   H. Ratio Decidendi and Res Judicata 516
   I. Law Reports 517

8. The Human Rights Act 1998 523
   A. Introduction 523
   B. Key Concepts and Provisions 525
   C. Specific Convention Rights 567
   D. Practical Implementation of the Act 594
   E. Impact of the Act 595

PART II: SOLVING LEGAL PROBLEMS

9. Problems about Problems 599
   A. What is a Problem? 600
   B. When is a Problem “legal”? 601
   C. The Community Legal Service and the Meeting of Need 605
   D. Legal Problems and the Use of Lawyers 606
   E. Overmet Legal Need—the “compensation Culture”? 614
   F. Meeting Unmet Legal Need 616

10. Information and Advice Services 617
    A. The Special Features of Information and Advice Provision 620
PART III: PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE

11. FEATURES OF LITIGATION AND OTHER METHODS OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION
   A. Costs 644
   B. Delay 671
   C. Settlement 677
   D. Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”) 685

12. PRE-TRIAL CIVIL PROCEDURE
   A. The Overriding Objective 694
   B. Tracks 698
   C. The County Court 699
   D. The High Court 699
   E. Court Procedure Generally 700
   F. Interim Remedies 757
   G. Have the Woolf Reforms Achieved their Objectives? 760

13. PRE-HEARING: TRIBUNALS
   A. The Common Objectives 767
   B. “Knowing your Rights”—Identifying the Tribunal 769
   C. “Knowing the Ropes”—Making Application to a Tribunal 773
   D. “Knowing the Case”—the Pre-hearing Exchange of Information 775
   E. Tribunal Procedure Rules 779

14. PRE-TRIAL CRIMINAL PROCEDURE
   A. Investigation—Investigative Agencies 785
   B. The Responsibility for Instituting Prosecutions 839
   C. The Exercise of Discretion in Prosecutions 851
   D. The Classification of Offences 862
   E. Getting the Accused into Court 872
   F. Bail or Custody? 873
   G. Committal Proceedings 888
   H. Disclosure of Evidence 893
   I. A Pre-trial Review 909
   J. Obtaining Legal Advice and Representation 911
   K. Evaluations 916
   L. Future Developments 928
PART IV: THE HEARING

15. THE CIVIL TRIAL
   A. Adversarial Procedure 934
   B. Witnesses and Expert Evidence 938
   C. The Use of the Jury in Civil Cases 943
   D. Should the Jury be Retained in Civil Cases? 945
   E. The Role of the Judge 947
   F. The Judgment and Remedies 948
   G. Enforcing Judgment 950

16. THE TRIBUNAL HEARING
   A. Procedure 957
   B. The Role of the Chairman 965
   C. The Role of the “Wing” Members 968
   D. Representation Before Tribunals 968
   E. Experiences of Tribunals 981
   F. Alternatives to Oral Hearings 982

17. THE CRIMINAL TRIAL
   A. Summary Trial 989
   B. Trial on Indictment 1007
   C. Evaluations 1101

18. APPEALS AND JUDICIAL REVIEW
   A. Introduction 1107
   B. Variable Factors in Appeal and Review Mechanisms 1109
   C. Appeals 1109
   D. Applications for Judicial Review 1170
   E. References to the European Court of Justice 1180
   F. The Royal Prerogative of Mercy 1192