Mass Media Laws and Regulations in the Philippines

Annotated Compilation (with commentaries and other background material)
by Luis V. Teodoro Jr. and Rosalinda V. Kabatay

3rd Edition

Published by:
CENTER FOR RESEARCH AND COMMUNICATION FOUNDATION, INC.
ASIAN MEDIA INFORMATION & COMMUNICATION CENTRE
CONTENTS

I. Press Freedom: The Philippine Context ......................................................... 1
   Freedom of Expression ................................................................................... 1
   The Meaning of the Law .............................................................................. 3
   The Philippine Judicial System ..................................................................... 4
   The Philippine Press ..................................................................................... 5
   Notes ............................................................................................................... 6

II. A Quick Guide to the Laws on the Philippine Communication Media .......... 7
   A. Laws Affecting All Forms of Communication Media ......................... 8
      1. Constitutional Provisions ................................................................. 8
         Freedom of Expression ........................................................................ 8
         The Right to Information .................................................................... 8
         The Right to Privacy ........................................................................... 9
         The Commission on Elections ............................................................ 10
         Policy Environment for Communication and Media Ownership ....... 12
         Section 11(1) of the Constitution Applied ........................................ 12
      2. Provisions Relevant to Mass Media in the Revised Penal Code of the Philippines [Act No. 3815, as amended] .................................. 13
         a. Crimes Against National Security and Public Order .................... 13
         b. Libel - Crime Against Honor ......................................................... 17
         c. Offenses Against Decency and Good Customs ............................... 20
         [Republic Act No. 386, as amended] ...................................................... 21
         Notes ...................................................................................................... 22
      4. Special Laws ............................................................................................ 23
         a. The “Shield Law” ............................................................................ 23
         Notes ...................................................................................................... 24
         b. Copyright .......................................................................................... 25
            Copyright: definition; purpose ....................................................... 25
            Copyright/Economic Right ............................................................ 26
            Social Function .............................................................................. 26
            The Conflict Between Copyright and Free Speech ...................... 26
            Intellectual Property (IP) ................................................................. 28
            Present Law on Copyright .............................................................. 29
            Background ..................................................................................... 29
            USTR Priority Watch List ................................................................. 30
            Update ............................................................................................... 31
            The IPC, Other Related Laws, The Textbook Printing
            Law & International Treaties on Copyright .................................... 34
            Basic Information on Copyright ..................................................... 35
            How Copyright is Acquired ............................................................. 35
            Works are protected by the sole fact of their creation .................... 36
            Registration and Deposit with the Government ............................... 37
            Implementing Offices & Remedies for Infringement ....................... 39
PHILIPPINE MASS MEDIA LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Works Covered/Not Covered; Nature of Copyright and Rights of Copyright Owner ........................................ 40
Other Rights ........................................................................ 42
Fair Use & Decompilation .................................................. 42
Loss of Copyright ............................................................... 43
Infringement of Copyright .................................................. 43
Enforcement of IP Right ..................................................... 45

Notes .................................................................................. 46
c. Fair Election Act ............................................................. 48
   Background ....................................................................... 48
   Salient Provisions ........................................................... 50
   The Law in Operation ....................................................... 50
   Ban on Publication of Election Surveys Unconstitutional ... 51
   Distinguished from National Press Club v. Comelec (207 SCRA 1 [1992]) and Osmeña & Garcia v. Comelec (288 SCRA 447 [1998]) .......................................................... 52

Notes .................................................................................. 53
B. Laws and Codes for the Print Industry ............................. 54
   Textbook Reprinting Law Repealed .................................... 54
   Publication of Judicial Notices .......................................... 55
   The Movie and Television Review and Classification Board (MTRCB) and Publicity Materials ....................... 56
   The Book Industry Development Act (R.A. No. 8047) .......... 57
   Taxation ........................................................................... 59
   The Campus Journalism Act of 1991 (Republic Act No. 7079) 60
   Section 7, Republic Act No. 7079 Applied .......................... 60
   The Philippine Journalist’s Code of Ethics ........................... 61

Notes .................................................................................. 62
C. Laws and Codes for the Broadcast Industry ..................... 63
   1. Laws for Mass Media Practitioners Engaged in Broadcast ......................................................... 63
      Prohibition of Live Radio and TV Coverage of Court Proceedings .............................................. 63
      The Rule on the Examination of A Child Witness ................................................................. 64
      Exclusion from the courtroom of all persons, including members of the press ......................... 65
      Live-link television testimony  ......................................................................................... 65
      Videotaped deposition ................................................................................................. 66
      Publication of identity contemptuous ........................................................................... 66
   2. Laws and Regulations for Broadcast Companies ............................................................................ 66
      a. Legislative Franchise and Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity ......................... 66
         Legislative Franchise ................................................................................................. 68
         MTRCB Authority to Review Public Affairs Programs .................................................. 69
         Self-regulation by the Undertaking of the Grantee ...................................................... 74
      b. The Register of Telecommunications Laws (RTL), The Laws, Executive Orders, Presidential or Administrative Issuances Affecting Broadcast, and Their Implementing Rules and Regulations .......................................................... 74
      c. Regulation ........................................................................................................... 75

xii
TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Government Regulation</td>
<td>75</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Self-regulation</td>
<td>76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (the Association of Broadcasters of the Philippines - “KBP”)</td>
<td>76</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A member withdraws</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Advertising Board of the Philippines, Inc. (ADBOARD)</td>
<td>78</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resignation of the KBP from the Adboard</td>
<td>79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clearing House for Advertising materials for all TV Stations</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>81</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Laws and Codes for the Film Industry and Audio-Visual Media</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Film</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Republic Act No. 9167 - Creating the Film Development</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Council of the Philippines</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A Long and Arduous Legal Journey</td>
<td>83</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Republic Act. No. 9167 - Salient Provisions</td>
<td>85</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Presidential Decree No. 1986 - The MTRCB</td>
<td>86</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The MTRCB and the Presidency</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Audio-Visual Media</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Optical Media Board created by the Optical Media Act of 2003</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OMB Rules and Regulations</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OMB &amp; the MTRCB</td>
<td>91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Laws and Codes for the Advertising Industry</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Historical Background</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Constitutional Limitations</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Consumer Act of the Philippines</td>
<td>95</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Consumer Act (Republic Act No. 7394) and E-Commerce</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Law (Republic Act No. 8792)</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tobacco Regulation Act of 2003</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Salient Provisions of Republic Act No. 9211</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Implementation</td>
<td>98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADBOARD Code of Ethics</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Billboards</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Billboards Subject to Police Power</td>
<td>103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AdBoard Code of Ethics Review</td>
<td>105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F. Laws Affecting the New Media</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Internet</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cyberspace</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Laws Applicable to the Internet</td>
<td>108</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Internet as a Communication Medium</td>
<td>109</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Internet in the Philippines</td>
<td>110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ten Years of Internet in the Philippines</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Philippine Newspapers Online</td>
<td>113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. New Media, Old Media</td>
<td>114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Philippine Government Offices &amp; New Media</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Government Web Presence</td>
<td>116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Philippine Judiciary and New Media</td>
<td>116</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. The E-Commerce Law [Republic Act No. 8792]</td>
<td>117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Defining E-Commerce</td>
<td>118</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
PHILIPPINE MASS MEDIA LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Some Salient Provisions of Republic Act No. 8792 ........................................ 118
Scope & Legal Recognition ................................................................................. 118
Electronic Signatures ......................................................................................... 119
Contracts .............................................................................................................. 119
Penal Provisions .................................................................................................. 119
Cases Under the E-Commerce Law ................................................................. 120
First Electronic Libel Case ............................................................................... 120
Update on the Lovebug Virus Case ................................................................. 121
First Conviction under the E-Commerce Law ................................................. 121
Bar Exam Questions Hacked; Lawyer Disbarred ............................................. 123
E-Commerce Law & the Consumer Act .......................................................... 124

5. Cellular Phones (Cellphones/Mobile Phones) and Text Messaging ............... 125
Texting and the Presidency ................................................................................. 126
Text as Evidence .................................................................................................. 127
Regulating Text Messaging ............................................................................... 128
Internet via Mobile Phone & 3G Wireless Communications ............................ 129
Internet Pornography ......................................................................................... 130

6. Convergence ................................................................................................... 131

Notes ..................................................................................................................... 132

7. Telecommunication and Information and Communication Technology (ICT) ................................................................. 135
Telecommunications ............................................................................................ 135
Key Players in Philippine Telecommunications ................................................. 137
Government Regulatory Bodies ......................................................................... 137
Policy and Regulatory Framework .................................................................... 139
Ownership of Communication Utilities ........................................................... 140 Ownership of Physical Infrastructure and Section 28 of the E-Commerce Act (Republic Act No. 8792) ...................................................... 141
Regulation of Internet Services or Value Added Service (VAS) ......................... 141
Summary of the Characteristics of the Regulations ........................................... 142

Information and Communications Technology (ICT)
   Strategy of the Macapagal-Arroyo Administration .......................................... 142

Notes ..................................................................................................................... 144

III. Commentaries on the Philippine Mass Media System and Media Laws .......... 146
The Historical Perspective ................................................................................. 146
Freedom (liberty), Law, Mass Media and Common Good ................................ 147
Freedom of Expression ....................................................................................... 149
Scope ..................................................................................................................... 149
Meaning, History of Protection, Historical Influence ....................................... 150
Constitutional Guaranty ....................................................................................... 152

Notes ..................................................................................................................... 153
1. The Spanish Era (1521-1898) .................................................................... 155
2. American Rule ................................................................................................. 157
3. The Japanese Occupation (1942-1945) ........................................................ 161
4. The Philippine Republic from 1946 (after the Commonwealth Period) to 1972 (before Martial Law) .......................................................... 163
   a. Manuel Roxas (1946-1948) .................................................................. 164
   b. Elpidio Quirino (1948-1953) .................................................................. 164
   c. Ramon Magsaysay (1953-1957) ............................................................... 165
   d. Carlos P. Garcia (1957-1961) ................................................................. 166

xiv
TABLE OF CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>e. Diosdado Macapagal (1961-1965)</td>
<td>166</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>f. Ferdinand E. Marcos</td>
<td>167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. The Martial Law Period (1972-1986)</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a. Immediate Effects of Martial Law on Mass Media</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. The Early Years of Martial Law (1972-1977)</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c. The Emergence of the “Alternative Press” (1977-1983)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More Laws Aimed at Media; Arrest, Search and Seizure Order</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ASSO); Presidential Commitment Order (PCO)</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d. The Predominance of the Anti-Marcos Media (1983-1986)</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. The Restoration of Democracy</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a. The Aquino Administration</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. Legislative Acts Under the Aquino Administration Affecting Mass Media</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c. Freedom of Expression Under the Restored Democracy</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Case Law/Jurisprudence</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Freedom of Speech, of Expression, and of the Press</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[1987 Constitution, Art. 3, Section 4]</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Freedom of Expression Discussed in Philippine Jurisprudence</td>
<td>187</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Freedom of Expression Not Absolute</td>
<td>188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Due Process</td>
<td>188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Forms of Abridgement of Expression:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prior Restraint and Subsequent Punishment</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a. Prior Restraint</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. Freedom from Subsequent Punishment</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Dangerous Tendency Rule</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Clear and Present Danger Test</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Balancing of Interests Test</td>
<td>195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
<td>197</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. The Right to Information</td>
<td>198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>[1987 Constitution, Article 3, Section 7]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Constitutional Provision Granting Access to</td>
<td>198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Information and Related Provisions</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other provisions related to the right to information</td>
<td>202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>a. Right to Information as a Self-Executing Right</td>
<td>203</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b. Rationale for the Right to Information</td>
<td>203</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>c. Who May Assert the Right</td>
<td>204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>d. Rights Guaranteed</td>
<td>206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Public Concern</td>
<td>206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Access to Official Records</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>e. Limits of Rights</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Recognized Restrictions</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GMA’s E.O. 464 – Executive Privilege as an exemption to the power</td>
<td>210</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>of legislative inquiry(the general power of Congress to obtain</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>information)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Whether E.O. 464 contravenes the power of inquiry</td>
<td>216</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>vested in Congress</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Whether E.O. 464 violates the right of the people to information on matters of public concern .................................................. 217
Rights of the Accused: Live Coverage of the Estrada Trial .................................................. 218 Motion for Reconsideration, September 13, 2001 .................................................. 220
f. Mandatory Publications of Laws as a Means of Implementing Right to Information .................................................. 221 Publication of statutes that do not directly apply to people in general .................................................. 222
g. Right to Information in Statutes .................................................. 223
h. Right to Information in Practice
The Supreme Court and Media .................................................. 225
Notes .................................................. 225
C. Limits to Freedom of Speech, of Expression, and of the Press and the Right to Information .................................................. 228
1. Right to Privacy .................................................. 228
   a. Concept .................................................. 228
   Threats to Privacy .................................................. 230
   b. Philippine Laws on Privacy-Basis .................................................. 230
   c. Natural Laws and Privacy .................................................. 230
   The 1987 Constitution on Privacy .................................................. 234
   i. Privacy of Communication and Correspondence .................................................. 234
      The Anti-Wire Tapping Law .................................................. 236
      The Bill of Rights and Private Individuals .................................................. 237
   ii. Search and Seizure (Article III, Section 2) .................................................. 237
   The Right of Privacy in Private Law and Other Laws .................................................. 238
      i. The Civil Code .................................................. 240
      ii. The Revised Penal Code .................................................. 241
      iii. Rules of Court .................................................. 241 Rules of Admissibility .................................................. 241
   iv. Special Laws .................................................. 242
      Youthful Offenders .................................................. 242
      Rape Victims .................................................. 243
      Cases Tried by the Family Courts .................................................. 243
      Child Abuse .................................................. 244
      AIDS Patients .................................................. 244
   v. Computers and Privacy .................................................. 245
      First Philippine Law on Cyberspace .................................................. 246
      First Philippine Jurisprudence on Privacy and the Computer .................................................. 247
      FVR's A.O. No. 308 (1996) .................................................. 247
      GMA's E.O. No. 420 (2005) .................................................. 252
      Privacy and Public Figure .................................................. 255
      Wider Concept of the "Public Figure"
      Four major privacy actions .................................................. 258
      Privacy applied by the KBP .................................................. 259
Notes .................................................. 260
2. National Security .................................................. 261
   a. National Security as a Limitation to Press Freedom .................................................. 265
      The Philippine Sedition Law is Not akin to U.S. Sedition Law .................................................. 270
TABLE OF CONTENTS

b. Cases on National Security and Press Freedom During the Marcos Period ........................................... 270
c. Cases on National Security after 1986 ......................................................... 277
d. National Security Issues ................................................................. 277
   Sedition ......................................................................................... 278
   Rebellion ..................................................................................... 279
   The Drug Menace ......................................................................... 281
   Terrorism ...................................................................................... 281
   The KBP Response ........................................................................ 282
   Proclamation No. 1017 ................................................................... 283
   Calibrated Preemptive Response or CPR and The Public Assembly Act (B.P.880) ............................................. 288

Notes .............................................................................................................. 295
3. Libel ........................................................................................................... 298
   a. What Libel is: History and Rationale .................................................. 298
   b. The Criminal and Civil Aspect of Libel Law ........................................ 298
   c. The Laws on Libel; How Committed; Persons Responsible ................. 299
   d. Laws Applied to Cases ....................................................................... 300
      1. Article 353 - Elements .................................................................... 300
         a. Libel by means of publication of photograph ................................ 303
         b. Publication means “to make public” .............................................. 304
         c. Identifiability ............................................................................... 304
         d. Malice ....................................................................................... 305
            Actual Malice/Malice in Fact in Privileged Communications ... 305 Actual malice and the press ......................................................... 308
         e. No libelous imputation if embraced by guarantees of free speech and free press .......................................................... 309
      2. Article 354 - Requirement of Publicity; Presumption of Malice; Privileged Communication ............................................. 310
         a. Presumption of Malice ................................................................ 310
         b. Malice is not presumed in privileged communications ................. 310
         c. Enumeration under Art. 354 not an exclusive list; genesis of rule on privileged communications ........................................ 311
         d. Rationale for Privileged Communication; Concept ....................... 311
         e. Fact that communication is privileged does not mean it is not actionable: ......................................................................... 313
         f. Privileged Communication: Classes - Absolute and Conditional or Qualified .............................................................. 313
         g. Cases illustrating Art. 354 (1) ....................................................... 314
            i. Qualified privileged communication ...................................... 314
            ii. Not qualified privileged communication ................................ 316
         h. Case illustrating Art. 354 (2): A newspaper's faithful and accurate summary of what was testified to by a witness in a pending rape case is not libelous .............................................. 319
            i. Doctrines related to Privileged Communication ....................... 320
               Doctrine of fair comment ......................................................... 320
               Privilege of fair criticism ......................................................... 322
               Neutral reportage ................................................................... 322
      3. Article 355 - Libel by means of Writing or Similar Means .................. 323
4. Article 358 - Slander (Oral Defamation) ........................................ 323
5. Article 360 - Persons Responsible .............................................. 324
6. Article 361 - Proof of Truth ...................................................... 326
7. Sanctions .................................................................................. 329
8. Defenses .................................................................................. 330
9. "SPECIAL" CASE The libel suit of former President Corazon C. Aquino against journalist Luis Beltran ........................................ 331

Notes .......................................................................................... 333

4. Obscenity .................................................................................... 334
A. Laws and Regulations on Obscenity ............................................ 334
   1. Revised Penal Code ................................................................ 334
   2. Article 201 of the Revised Penal Code and Presidential Decree No. 1986 dated October 5, 1985 creating the Movie and Television Review and Classification Board (MTRCB) .................................................. 335
      Promulgated by MTRCB/Classification vs. the Power to Review and Censor .......................................................... 338
      The MTRCB Exercise of Power .............................................. 340
B. Obscenity - Legal Definition, Tests as seen in Philippine Cases .... 342
C. Obscenity/Pornography defined; effects ..................................... 351 Role of Government and the Catholic Church ......................... 352
   Pending Bill in Congress ......................................................... 355
   Abolition of the MTRCB .......................................................... 356
D. Business and obscenity ............................................................. 357
   Television & Advertising ....................................................... 357
   Films and SM Malls Policy ..................................................... 358
   The Economics of Sexy Films .................................................. 359

Notes .......................................................................................... 360

5. Fair Administration of Justice and Contempt ............................... 363
   a. The Law on Contempt and Its Historical Background ........... 363
   b. What Constitutes Fair Administration of Justice ..................... 364
   c. Subjudice ............................................................................. 365
   d. Contempt ............................................................................ 365
   e. Forum Shopping-direct Contempt ......................................... 368
   f. Indirect Contempt ................................................................ 370
   g. Acceptable Criticism so as not to be liable for Contempt ....... 372 Criticisms/Fair Comment and Defamation ............................... 372
   h. Free Speech and Fair Administration of Justice .................... 373
      Comments of a Former Member of the Cabinet Re: The Court 374
   i. Prejudicial Publicity ............................................................. 376
   j. Important Points to Consider Regarding Concept ................. 380
   k. Contempt Without Relation to a Pending Case ....................... 380
   l. The Norms for the Proper Exercise of Press Freedom ............ 383
      1. Constitutional Law Norms .............................................. 383
      2. Civil Law Norms ........................................................... 383
      3. Philippine Journalist's Code of Ethics ................................. 383
      4. Right to Private Honor and Reputation ............................... 383

Notes .......................................................................................... 384
TABLE OF CONTENTS

D. Issues and Problems - In Spirit and the Practice of Philippine Mass

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Media Law</td>
<td>386</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A History of Conflict</td>
<td>386</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Journalists Killed</td>
<td>389</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Intentions Versus Reality</td>
<td>392</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Cooperative Officials</td>
<td>393</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pressures on the Media</td>
<td>396</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Areas of Coverage</td>
<td>399</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crisis of Information</td>
<td>401</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dissident Practitioners</td>
<td>403</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Challenge to Media</td>
<td>404</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INDEX .................................................................................. 406

BIBLIOGRAPHY ................................................................. 412