The Dutch Constitutional Monarchy in a Changing Europe
Table of contents

Introduction / VII

I GENERAL REFLECTIONS

H.D. Tjeenk Willink
Some Observations about the Netherlands and the Monarchy / 3

D.J. Elzinga
The Monarchy and the Constitutional Neuter; On the Meaning of the 'pouvoir neutre' in the Dutch Democracy / 7

II THE DUTCH CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY IN A CHANGING SOCIETY

P. Schnabel
Modern Monarchism; From 'Vivat Oraenge' to 'Long live the Queen' / 25

C.J.M. Schuyt
The Tradition of the Monarchy / 37

A.M. Hol
The Vulnerable Monarchy; Authority and Sentiments / 43

D.W.J.M. Pessers
The Symbolic Legitimizations of the Constitutional Monarchy / 51

A.E. Komter
The Paradox of the Modern Monarchy: Distance and Proximity / 61

J.Th.J. van den Berg
Saevis Tranquilla in Undis, Queen in Times of Populism / 69

III THE DUTCH CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY IN EUROPEAN PERSPECTIVE

H.W. von der Dunk
The Dutch Monarchy in Europe / 81

I. de Haan
The Modern Monarchy and the Democratic Deficit / 97
H. te Velde
The Three Phases of the Constitutional Monarchy; The Dutch Monarchy in a European Context / 109

H.J.L. Vonhoff
Opportunities for the Constitutional Monarchy in Europe / 123

W.P. Blockmans
The Added Value / 129

IV THE CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY IN TRANSATLANTIC KINGDOM

E.M.H. Hirsch Ballin
The Constitutional Monarchy in a Transatlantic Kingdom / 135

J.M. Saleh
The Constitutional Monarchy and the Relations in the Kingdom from an Antillean Perspective / 143

S.F.C. Camelia-Römer
Some Suggestions for a Renewed Kingdom / 157

H.G. Hoogers
‘The Royal House of the Oranjes, the Symbol of Unity of the Dutch Empire Throughout the Centuries’. Some Thoughts about the Report of the Jesurun Working Group and the Transatlantic Monarchy / 171

V CONCLUDING REMARKS

Ineke Sluiter
Symbolic Monarchy, Symbolic Debate / 197

Curricula Vitae of the Authors / 213