

Enforcing European Union Law on Exports of Dual-use Goods

SIPRI Research Report No. 24

Anna Wetter

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
2009

Contents

Preface	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Glossary	xii
1. Introduction	1
I. Dual-use export controls and non-proliferation	3
II. Dual-use export controls in the European Union	4
III. The importance of bringing violators to justice	6
IV. This report	8
2. The international context	10
I. The international non-proliferation agreements	10
II. UN Security Council Resolution 1540	14
III. The multilateral export control regimes	18
IV. European Union non-proliferation policy	21
3. The European Union institutional framework	27
I. The three areas of competence	27
II. Cooperation in the three areas of competence	32
III. The three areas of competence and dual-use export controls	43
IV. The future of the European Union institutional framework	49
4. Enforcing the EC Dual-use Regulation at national level	53
I. The licensing mechanism and procedures	53
II. Law enforcement agencies and their roles	59
III. The role of prosecution services	65
IV. Harmonization of penalties?	67
5. Inter-agency cooperation at the European Union level	72
I. Police cooperation	73
II. Customs cooperation	76

III. Prosecution and criminal justice cooperation	79
IV. Cooperation and non-proliferation	85
6. Case studies	89
I. Germany	89
II. Sweden	101
III. The Netherlands	113
IV. The United Kingdom	125
7. Conclusions	137
I. Conclusions	137
II. Recommendations	146
Appendix A. Sanctions for dual-use export control violations in the European Union member states	156
Index	159