PRIVATE LABELS, BRANDS, AND COMPETITION POLICY

The Changing Landscape of Retail Competition

Edited by
Ariel Ezrachi
Ulf Bernitz

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
CONTENTS—SUMMARY

Preface v
List of Contributors ix
Table of Cases xxv
Table of Legislation xxxi

PART I THE NATURE OF RETAIL COMPETITION

1. Private Labels—What Drives them Forward? 3
   Richard Herbert

2. The Business Model for Manufacturers' Brands 21
   Dick Bell

3. Bargaining between Retailers and their Suppliers 45
   Howard Smith and John Thanassoulis

PART II MARKET POWER AND THE ABUSE OF DOMINANCE

   Robert L. Steiner

5. Private Labels and Branded Goods: Consumers' 'Horrors' and 'Heroes' 99
   Paul W. Dobson and Ratula Chakraborty

6. Private Labels and Article 82 EC 125
   Andres Font Galarza

PART III VERTICAL RESTRAINTS

7. Private Labels, Dual Distribution, and Vertical Restraints—An Analysis of the Competitive Effects 139
   David Gilo

8. The Vertical/Horizontal Dichotomy in Competition Law: Some Reflections with Regard to Dual Distribution and Private Labels 161
   Ioannis Lianos
Contents—Summary

PART IV IN-STORE COMPETITION, PRICING, MARKETING, AND ADVERTISING

9. Retailer and Private Labels: Asymmetry of Information, In-store Competition and the Control of Shelf Space
   Pieter Kuipers

10. Misleading Packaging, Copycats, and Look-alikes: An Unfair Commercial Practice?
    Ulf Bernitz

11. Private Labels, Product Variety, and Price Competition—Lessons from the German Grocery Sector
    Rainer Olbrich, Gundula Grewe, and Ruth Orenstrat

12. Advertising, Promotional Campaigns, and Private Labels
    Ariel Ezrachi and Jonathan Reynolds

PART V RETAIL CONSOLIDATION AND THE USE OF REMEDIES

13. Retail Consolidation: The Implications of Mergers and Buying Alliances
    John Ratliff

14. Retail Competition: The Use of Ex-ante and Ex-post Remedies
    Alastair Gorrie

PART VI PRIVATE LABELS—THE US EXPERIENCE

15. United States Competition Law Policy—The Private Label Experience
    Jeffrey Schmidt and Terry Calvani

PART VII CONSUMER WELFARE AND ENFORCEMENT STANDARD

16. The 'Consumer Welfare' Standard as a Form of Substantive Protection for Consumers under European Competition Law
    Philip Marsden and Peter Whelan

17. Welfare Objective and Enforcement Standard in Competition Law
    Renato Nazzini

Index