Contents

Introduction
Liesbeth Huppes-Cluysenaer, Robert Knegt and Oliver W. Lembcke (editors) 1

Questioning Legitimacy or Why Social Scientists Find Legitimacy Where None Exists
Joris Kocken 7

Examining Weber on Legitimate Domination: a Case Study of the Opposition to the Patriot Act in the United States
Devyani Prabhat 19

The Dynamics of Legitimacy: A Critical Reconstruction of Max Weber’s Concept
Oliver W. Lembcke 33

Escaping the Iron Cage: Framing Weber’s Concept of Legitimacy
Erik de Bakker 47

Legitimacy and Types of Legality
Niels F. van Manen 67

Legitimacy, Representations of Order and Accountability
Robert Knegt 87

Tort, Social Aims and the Iron Cage: On the Relevance of Weber’s Concepts for the Analysis of Tort
Rob Schwitters 99

Capitalism, Predictability, Formal Rationality and the Peculiarities of English Law
Harry Willekens 109

Turning the State into a Household: From Judicial Law to Administrative Law
Liesbeth Huppes-Cluysenaer 125

Legitimacy in the European Joint Administration: A Weberian Perspective
Enrico Peuker 157

Common References 171

Correspondence table to the four main Weber texts 189

About the Authors 195